WINNIPEG VETERANS FOR LAW AND ORDER

GREATER PRODUCTION AND THRIFT NEEDED, STATES SIR T. WHITE

Finance Minister Tells Commons the Government's Expenditure This Year Will Be $620,000,000 and Its Revenue About $280,000,000

Ottawa, June 5.—A complete review of the financial position of the Dominion as a result of the war, and suggestions as to what Canada must do in order to pass successfully through the next few difficult years, were the features of Sir Thomas White's budget speech in the Commons this afternoon. The Minister's story of Canada's present position was listened to attentively by a full House and crowded galleries.

Probably the most interesting statement made by Sir Thomas was that the ultimate debt of the Dominion, when all expenditures are met, will be $1,950,000,000, or nearly $244 per head of population, and involving an annual interest burden of $115 per head. The pensions will cost from $35,000,000 to $40,000,000 per annum.

While impressing upon the House the fact that the burden to be borne is heavy, Sir Thomas said Canada was in a much better position than many other countries and there was no reason why the people should be discouraged.

The cost of the war up to March 31, the close of the fiscal year, had been $1,327,273,848, he said. For the past fiscal year it had been $450,000,000, as compared with $60,750,475 for the first year of war.

During the war period $275,943,977 of its principal cost had been paid out of revenue. With pensions and interest disbursements, the amount of revenue paid out has been $435,293,248.

The Finance Minister told the House that the demobilization cost for the current fiscal year would be not less than $200,000,000. The revenue, on the other hand, would not exceed $280,000,000, or about sufficient to cover the ordinary expenditures. There would have to be at least one more loan to cover the demobilization and capital expenditure.

For the past fiscal year Sir Thomas was able to announce that the revenue had exceeded the ordinary expenditure by $75,000,000, of which $45,000,000 had been devoted to war expenditures.

DELIVERS BUDGET SPEECH AT OTTAWA; SIR THOMAS WHITE

VANCOUVER STREET CAR MEN GO ON STRIKE AND LEAVE CITY WITHOUT A SERVICE

Vancouver, June 5.—For the third time in less than two years Vancouver awoke this morning to the fact that it was without a street car service, this time the employees of the street car company having gone on strike, following an all-night session, in sympathy with the strikers in Winnipeg. The decision of the street car employees came as a great surprise to this city, the employees having turned down the strike vote taken last week by a majority of five to one. At last night's meeting they reversed their former stand by a vote of two to one and decided to throw their fortunes in with those of their Winnipeg confederates.

Long before the citizens really realized that they would be forced to walk to work this morning a veritable flock of Juneys, which had been barred from operating by city ordinance, was upon the streets. Public disapproval of the stand of the street car employees began to show itself early this morning and many bitter complaints were heard.

Electricians at Work.
An overnight development in the strike situation, aside from the decision of the street car employees to go out, was the decision of the electrical workers to remain at their posts for the present, at least, because of the needs of the hospitals, restaurants, hotels and theatres, the remaining open of which has been sanctioned by the Strike Committee. This settles an important phase of the strike, at least temporarily, for it will guarantee a continuation of light and power in Vancouver.

Cabarets Closed.
The cabarets and other places of amusement were closed last night when the Strike Committee sent word to the Musicians' Union that the permit which had been given them to remain at work in theatres did not include other places of amusement, and did not apply to those establishments which have been in the habit of furnishing music with their patrons' meals.

Daily Sun's Declaration.
The determination of the Typographical Union to censor strike news appearing in the Vancouver newspapers met with opposition on the part of one daily newspaper, The Sun, which announced this morning in big black letters on the front page that it will not brook any interference on the part of the Typographical Union with the conduct of its own business. The text of the announcement follows:
"On Tuesday evening, in connection with the present labor trouble in this city, The Vancouver Daily Sun and the two evening newspapers were notified by the Typographical Union that its members would not put into type any news concerning the strike unless the same was satisfactory to a censor whom they had appointed."

TWO MORE TOWNS IN ASIA MINOR NORTH OF SMYRNA ARE OCCUPIED BY GREEKS

Salonica, June 5.—Greek forces yesterday occupied the towns of Aivali and Rhira, on the Gulf of Adramyti, on the west coast of Asia Minor about sixty-five miles north of Smyrna, according to an official statement issued at Greek headquarters. A Turkish detachment of troops made an attack on the Greeks at Aivali but was repulsed, losing four men killed. The Greeks did not suffer any casualties. The Turks on retiring set fire to their barracks, according to the statement.

L. S. KLINCK NEW UNIVERSITY HEAD

Is Appointed President in Succession to Late Dr. Wesbrook

NOTABLE CAREER AS AGRICULTURAL EXPERT

An intimation reached the Hon. J. D. MacLennan, Provincial Secretary and Minister of Education, over the telephone this morning to the effect that the Board of Governors had selected Leonard Sylvanus Klinck, B.S.A., to succeed the late Dr. Wesbrook as President of the University of British Columbia.

Has Been Acting President.
Since the death of his predecessor in October of last year, Dean Klinck has filled the chair of the chief executive with marked ability, and the action of the Board of Governors in elevating him to the Presidency of the institution is a fitting reward for the energy and enterprise demonstrated by him since the University came into being.

Dean Klinck was born at Victoria Square, Ontario, in 1877 and remained on his father's farm until he was 15. Becoming qualified as a public school teacher, he taught in a rural school for three years. He then took a course at the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, and in 1905 he was awarded the B. S. A. degree in Biology.

During his undergraduate course, he spent three summers in field experiment work under Prof. C. A. Zavitz. (Concluded on page 4.)

BOLSHEVIKI STILL ARE IN PETROGRAD

Esthonian Troops Are Continuing the Fight Southwest of City

Copenhagen, June 4.—Persistent reports that Petrograd has been captured are premature, according to a statement from the official Esthonian Press Bureau here. According to a report from Esthonian headquarters sent on Tuesday, vigorous Bolsheviki counter-attacks west and northwest of Gatchina had been repulsed by the Esthonians. The battle was still going on without decisive results.

Nothing was known at Esthonian headquarters regarding the reported advance of Finnish troops against Petrograd from the north.

West of Luga the northern troops of the Esthonian army were engaged solely in repelling attacks.

Southeast of Riga, Esthonian forces were continuing to advance toward Kreitzburg, according to the report.

Pledge Themselves at Mass Meeting to Maintain Law and Order in Winnipeg; Give Roaring Response to Mayor's Request for Special Police

Winnipeg, June 5.—More than 4,000 Winnipeg Veterans of the Great War, including scores of officers and hundreds of union men, after standing at attention in the Auditorium this afternoon and singing "God Save the King," pledged themselves and their resources to maintain law and order in Winnipeg and to stamp out Bolshevism and anarchy from the forces of Winnipeg labor.

Mayor Gray addressed the mass meeting and said the city wanted 2,000 special constables from the ranks of the returned soldiers to protect honest labor from intimidation, to provide for all issues, and to safeguard every branch of municipal and civil life.

A roaring response, "We are at your service," followed the Mayor's request. The city will pay the constables $6.00 a day.

BRICKLAYERS ON STRIKE IN CALGARY

Carpenters Voting; Government Firm in Attitude Toward Striking Postal Men

Calgary, June 5.—The bricklayers here reversed their former vote and have gone on strike. The Carpenters will take a vote to-day. The electrical workers and civic employees are threatening again to reconsider their vote by which they so far remained out. This feature of the strike situation in Calgary has arisen on account of the Government announcement that the striking postal workers would not be taken back.

Delegates to the One Big Union convention who have been in session since yesterday have accomplished little beyond an informal discussion. They expect to get down to business to-day.

Government Determined.
Ottawa, June 5.—That the Government is determined not to reinstate the post office employees who went out on sympathetic strike on the prairies and declined to return to duty when requested to do so, seems clear as a result of two telegrams sent yesterday by Robert Borden, one to R. Sincks, secretary of the Central Strike Committee in Calgary, and the other to V. Hollingsworth, secretary of the Alberta Wheat Growers' Association.

The Prime Minister's telegrams were in reply to messages received by him. The message from Mr. Sincks to the Prime Minister conveyed a long resolution passed by the Brotherhood of Dominion Express Employees condemning the announcement by Postmaster-General Blondin that the postal employees on strike should be considered dismissed. The telegram concluded: "The Central Strike Committee notes in passing that the postal Government, after having been appealed to to settle the present crisis in a manner satisfactory to labor, has answered the appeal by taking up an antagonistic, retaliatory attitude. The people's Government is once more asked to stand behind the people, not against them."

Methodist Telegram.
The telegram from the Alberta Methodist Conference covered a resolution passed by that body, expressing the opinion that the action of the Government "can not but perpetuate rather than alleviate the social unrest and be subversive of the principles enunciated by the Commission on Labor Legislation accepted by the Peace Conference, in the preparation of which Sir Robert Borden is said to have had a leading part."

The telegram called upon the Government to repeal its action and expressed the opinion that employees of Governments, municipal, Provincial and Federal, must be guaranteed the right of effective protest against wrong conditions.

SS. MAURETANIA AT HALIFAX TO-MORROW

Halifax, June 5.—The Cunard steamship Mauretania, from England with 182 officers and 3,500 other crew, of the C.E.F., is due here to-morrow morning at 6 o'clock, according to a radiogram received from the big ship to-day.

VILLISTAS REPORTED IN POSSESSION OF CHIHUAHUA CITY

El Paso, June 5.—La Patria, the leading Mexican newspaper published here, issued an extra to-day saying Chihuahua City was taken by Generals Villa and Angeles after only two hours of fighting last Sunday.

Vienna Report Says Soviet Government Declared in Slovenia

Berlin, June 4, via London, June 5 (Associated Press)—A report from Vienna declares a Soviet Government has been proclaimed in Slovenia, and it is said that one-third of Slovenia is now in the hands of the Magyars. The Czech troops who are advancing toward Pressburg are reported to be gaining steadily, while the Slovenians are surrendering in large numbers.

An Early Settlement of Strike in Paris May Be Arranged

Paris, June 5.—In competent circles optimism prevailed this morning relative to the strike in this city, and hopes were expressed that the trouble between the unions and the employers would soon be settled.

GENERAL STRIKE STILL PENDING

Decision May Be Made Tonight; Forecast of Action Impossible

With the Strike Committee, which will meet to-night, will rest a decision on the general strike issue in this city. Until the matter has been debated by that body it is impossible to forecast the events of the next few hours, but it is certain that developments in Vancouver will largely govern action here. While the labor leaders themselves are unable to say whether or not there will be a tie-up in Victoria, the fact that industry seems to be partially suspended in Vancouver, there is no doubt, will have a powerful effect upon the Strike Committee.

As many of the unions have not declared themselves on the strike issue, it is quite probable that the Strike Committee will not take final action to-night, but will refer the question back to the individual unions for reconsideration. It is apparent that a large part of organized labor here is opposed to a general strike, but it is claimed by members of the Strike Committee that if it can be "shut down" the workmen would actively support the Winnipeg strikers. The fact that a number of the unions have not taken a strike vote, and that some have voted against a strike, does not alter their conviction.

REPLY TO GERMANY END OF NEXT WEEK

Council of Four Not Expected to Answer Before Then

Paris, June 5.—It is doubtful if the Council of Four will be able to send a reply to the German counter-proposals to the peace treaty terms before the end of next week, according to the Paris office of Reuters.

The necessity for the various nations, and especially France, to make definite statements to banking interests concerning the funds likely to be received in reparation payments, in order to arrange for loans, apparently is affecting the Council of Four's consideration of amendments to the German peace treaty, and it is expected to result in the fixing of a definite reparation sum.

The failure of any plan for an international pooling of war debts, it is pointed out here, is forcing the individual nations to prepare to meet the bankers on a strictly business basis.

As the aggregate of our war issues exceeds our net war expenditure, it is to be pointed out that during the war we were enabled to make advances to (Concluded on page 4.)

FEDERAL SYSTEM FOR THE UNITED KINGDOM

London, June 5.—The House of Commons, after a two days' debate, last night adopted a resolution in favor of appointing a Parliamentary Committee to examine and report upon a federal system applicable to England, Scotland and Ireland. The vote was 187 to 34.

The resolution declares that with a view to enabling the Imperial Parliament to devote more attention to the interests of the Kingdom and the Empire the time has arrived for the creation of subordinate Legislatures.

FRANCHISE BILL.

Ottawa, June 5.—In the Commons yesterday afternoon Dr. Michael Clark asked the Prime Minister, in the event of there being any truth in the newspaper rumors to the effect that the Franchise Bill would go over until next session, to take up with the Cabinet during the recess the question of proportionate representation.

Sir Robert Borden promised to consider the matter. The House gave second reading to the bill to amend the Dominion Forest Reserve and Parks Act. The bill was taken up in committee.

CASE OF QUEBEC MILITARY REGISTRAR

Ottawa, June 5.—The conduct of Allen Taschereau, former Registrar under the Military Service Act at Quebec, was raised at question time in the House yesterday afternoon. In reply to Mr. Morphy, Hon. Arthur Meighen, Acting Minister of Justice, said Mr. Taschereau's conduct had been called in question as respected his handling of public money.

Mr. Morphy: "Were instructions given for his prosecution?"
Mr. Meighen: "Yes."

Mr. Morphy: "Why has he not been prosecuted?"

Mr. Meighen: "A warrant was applied for by representatives of the Department of Justice, and an inquiry was held by the magistrate at Quebec, who refused to issue the warrant. All information was sent to the Attorney-General of Quebec Province, calling attention to the matter and asking him to take such steps as might be necessary in the interests of justice."

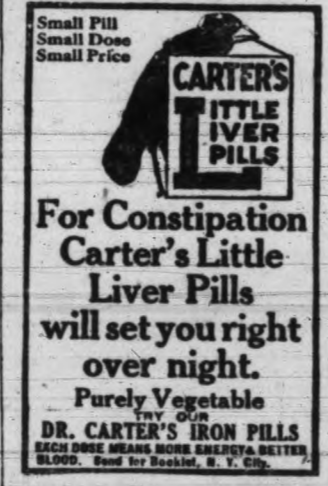

BUENOS AYRES PAPERS ARE NOT PUBLISHING

Buenos Ayres, June 5.—Buenos Ayres, a city of more than 1,500,000 inhabitants and with more than thirty daily newspapers in many languages, has been without newspapers or even news bulletins for six days.

Fifteen of the principal publishers decided last Thursday to close down their plants indefinitely after the refusal of union printers to set the advertisement of a boycotted department store.

Issy-les-Moulineaux, France, June 5.—Captain Rene Fonck, the famous ace, attempted yesterday to break the altitude record in an aeroplane, of 31,000 feet, made by Adjutant Casale on May 28. The aviator rapidly ascended to 30,000 feet. There his motor froze and he was forced to make a thrilling voyage with his engine stopped. He finally landed in safety.

LEADERS COMPLETING AUSTRIAN TREATY

Allied Chiefs Yesterday Virtually Agreed on the Reparation Clause

Paris, June 5.—After the meeting of the Council of Four yesterday it was announced that the members of the Council had virtually agreed on the reparations clause of the Austrian treaty. The question of boundaries also was discussed, but no conclusion was reached.

Until an agreement is reached on all the supplementary clauses, none of these omitted from the treaty will be presented to the Austrians.

There is little expectation that the Austrian treaty can be completed this week. The presentation of a missing clause, preparation of which will probably continue well into next week, will be by note. There will be no further meetings between the Austrian representatives and those of the Allied Powers.

Austrian Comments.

Vienna, June 4.—Via London, June 5.—The Vienna newspapers denounce the peace terms presented by the Allies. They had not prepared the public for such great territorial losses, and had led the people to believe Austria would be treated better than Germany.

A meeting of protest has been called for Friday. There is some recurrence of the talk of a Bolshevik regime.

Much anger is shown against the Italians, French, Czechs and Jugoslavs. The loss of Marburg and Klagenfurt are taken especially hard.

The Arbeiter Zeitung says: "All has been taken from us without respect to President Wilson's fourteen points, which is cruel and provoking."

The Reichspost says: "The conditions could not have been worse."
Dr. Edward Treichl, director of the Anglo-Hungarian Bank, said: "The terms are worse than I had supposed, although I reserve my full opinion until I see the financial terms."

"The only thing for the Austrian people is to say: 'We might as well join with Germany. We are companions in misfortune. We have nothing to lose by doing so.'"

GERMANS REQUIRED TO TAKE OFF HATS TO BRITISH OFFICERS

London, June 5.—In the Commons, in reply to Col. Wedgwood, who asked whether the Germans in occupied territories had to take off their hats and step off the sidewalk on meeting British officers. Rt. Hon. Winston Churchill said, amid loud cheers, that when Germans addressed British officers they were required to take off their hats. He saw no reason to suppose the practice would be discontinued after the signing of peace. This was one of the military regulations deemed suitable and appropriate to the period of occupation. The regulations were very much less severe than those which the Germans were accustomed to impose.

He believed the British regulations would bear comparison with those of any of the other great powers during the war. He was not prepared to deprive the army of its rights.

Replying to supplementary questions as regarding American practices, Mr. Churchill said he was quite content to be guided by the officers responsible for the conduct of the British army, who were not likely to be equally severe. (Cheers.)

VOLCANO KILLED 5,100 PERSONS IN JAVA

The Hague, June 5.—The Governor-General of the Kediri district of Java reports that 5,100 persons were killed during the recent eruption of the volcano of Kalut.

First reports of the eruption of Kalut or Keleat, received from Amsterdamm, May 26, were that thirty-one persons killed or injured. The volcano is in Eastern Java. The loss of 5,100 lives is the greatest loss of life there since 1853, when an eruption of several volcanoes combined with a tidal wave and other disturbances caused 25,000 deaths.

WOMAN'S HAIR REACHES TO KNEES

A Year Ago Was Threatened With Baldness. Tells How She Made Her Hair Grow.

Mrs. Esther Emery, now visiting friends in the city, is the fortunate possessor of marvellously beautiful hair, which, when loosened from its fastenings, reaches her knees. It is of soft, silky and fluffy texture and in color a glorious, glossy gold. Yet just one year ago she was threatened with baldness. To tell how she had obtained this wonderful growth in so short a time, she said: "Twelve months ago my hair, which then reached barely to my shoulders, was falling out at an alarming rate and growing very thin, actually exposing the bald scalp in several spots. It was dull and lifeless in color, turning grey in patches, and very dry and brittle. My head was covered with dandruff and itched like mad all the time. I tried fully a dozen different hair tonics, but they never did me a bit of good. One day I chanced to read in my home paper of a simple home prescription to make the hair grow that was recommended by a well-known physician. It said that by taking ordinary Lavona de Compose and mixing with Ray Rum and Menthol Crystals and applying the scalp each night with the finger tips that new hair would grow very rapidly. I decided to try it and had my druggist mix 2 ounces of the Lavona de Compose with 2 oz. of Ray Rum and 1/2 dr. of Menthol Crystals, and started to use it. How quickly my hair did grow. First the hair stopped falling, the itching ceased and the dandruff disappeared. Then tiny little hairs appeared all over my scalp. These grew and grew as though nothing would ever stop them. They are growing yet and, while, of course, I have used the treatment steadily and expect to continue it, at least until my hair reaches the floor, I might have stopped using it perfectly satisfied at the end of three months. I think that any woman can get long, thick, beautiful hair by using this prescription, as I have recommended it to several friends and all are delighted with the results. The prescription is very inexpensive and any druggist can fill it. Those who use it should be careful not to get it on the face or where the hair is not desired."

SELF-POISONING IS VERY PREVALENT

Auto-Intoxication, or Slow Self-Poisoning, Cause of Most Ill-Health and Disease

Advanced medical authorities assert that auto-intoxication is the foundation of most of the ills and diseases to which the human flesh is heir.

This condition is nothing more nor less than the slow self-poisoning of the vital organs produced by the excessive mental and physical strain which we are forced to endure, which renders the organs lame and inactive, and permits toxins—actual poisons—to be generated within one's own body.

Usually the trouble starts in the intestines; sometimes it starts in the stomach, liver, or kidneys, but in any case the blame lies with the faulty method of living, and may be traced to over-eating, excessive nervous strain, lack of exercise, or other causes. At any rate it is the more important organs that suffer the final damage, and when they falter or fail in their duties the body fills up with acids and poisons, and the victim often yields to their baleful influences. Bright's disease, heart trouble, high blood pressure, catarrhal affections, and other troubles are frequently the result of self-poisoning or auto-intoxication.

A tired, draggy feeling of the body, a sluggish mind and dull memory, intense nervousness, headache, stomach and bowel troubles, poor circulation, imperfect digestion, constipation and despondency are common symptoms of auto-intoxication, and nine out of every ten of the American people are likely to be so affected.

Tania, the powerful reconstructive and systemic tonic, was designed especially to overcome these very troubles. There is not a single portion of the body that is not benefited by the helpful work of this celebrated preparation, which begins its action by stimulating the digestive and assimilative organs, thereby enriching the blood and enervating the entire system. Composed of the most beneficial roots and herbs known to science, it enables the stomach to thoroughly digest the food thereby permitting the assimilable products to be converted into blood, bone and muscle. It overcomes that great exciting cause of disease weakness. It renders the body vigorous and elastic, it keeps the mind clear and energetic, and throws off the symptoms of nervousness and indigestion. It builds up the constitution weakened by disease or mental and physical exhaustion. Quickens the convalescence of the invalid, and is a sure and unfailing source of comfort to those who are suffering from the effects of nervousness and over-work.

That Tania does these very things is proved by the fact that it now has the largest sale of any tonic on the American market. Millions have used it with the most astonishing and gratifying results. Tania is sold in Victoria by D. E. Campbell, corner Fort and Douglas—Adv.

EQUAL SUFFRAGE IN THE UNITED STATES

Washington, June 5.—Action by Congress on equal suffrage—subject of a fight of forty years' duration—ended late today in adoption by the Senate by a vote of 65 to 35 of the historic Susan B. Anthony constitutional amendment resolution.

The proposed amendment, adopted by the House by a vote of 304 to 89 on May 21 as the first act of the new Congress, now goes to the States, ratification by the Legislatures of three-fourths of which is required for its inclusion in the Federal constitution.

Washington, June 5.—With the fight in Congress won after forty years of effort, advocates of woman suffrage today turned their attention to the various State Legislatures, three-fourths of which must ratify the constitutional amendment before victory can be won.

Although supporters of the measure are confident of final success, there is a division of opinion among the leaders as to whether the ratification by the States of the proposed amendment can be secured in time for the women all over the country to vote in the next Presidential election. Senator Gay, of Louisiana, in opposing the resolution yesterday, predicted that thirteen States would refuse to ratify the amendment, thus causing its defeat.

ASSIZE COURT IN VANCOUVER DELAYED

Vancouver, June 5.—One of the first consequences of the strike here was to clog the wheels of justice in the assize court, and put the Province to the expense of paying the jury panel and crown counsel for a protracted day.

The stoppage of the legal mill came as a direct consequence of the tie-up of Tuesday night's boat from Victoria. The assize judge, Mr. Justice Gregory, is a resident of Victoria, and though he had adjourned his court until yesterday, found himself unable to keep his own appointment. Not only the judge, but an important crown witness, was unable to attend the assize.

Mr. Justice Morrison, who had returned to the city from his circuit duties, adjourned the court in Mr. Justice Gregory's absence, until Monday, by which time it is expected Mr. Justice Gregory will be here.

The throat was cut and a razor was found nearby, indicating suicide. Deceased was in Vancouver eight days ago, and is thought to have been dead for several days. Among his papers were found his honorable discharge from the C. E. F., showing his regimental number was 835,983. He enlisted with the 145th Battalion at Vancouver on July 31, 1916.

CUSTOMS RECEIPTS.

"It really is too bad," said a sympathetic friend to a friend of the family one day. "The dear old Fatboys are so fond of each other, and they were both so graceful and slender when they married."

"Yes, it does seem hard on them," answered the friend; "but, then, just think how much more they are to each other now."

IT WAS SO BLACK.

His car had broken down. It was ten o'clock at night, and the rain was beginning to drizzle, but there was an inn near by. The landlord growled when he asked for a room, but at last conceded it. They put his motor in the garage. He didn't have any supper. He just looked at it, then he went to bed. A minute later he was leaning over the bannister.

"Landlord!" he yelled. "Landlord, do you think I'm going to clean my own boots?"

"What's up?" called back mine surly host.

"Wot's up? Why, what's that boot-polishing pad on my bed for?"

"Polishing pad?" yelled back the landlord. "That's not a polishing-pad young feller, that's the pillow.—Tit-Bits

AUSTRALIA TO FLOAT ANOTHER WAR LOAN

Shortly Australia's Acting Prime Minister, Mr. W. A. Watt, as Federal Treasurer, will be called on to fix the amount of the next war loan, and the opinion of well-known Melbourne financiers is that the public will be asked to subscribe £20,000,000. This is based on several lines of reasoning. Owing to the cessation of hostilities Australia's war expenditure has decreased considerably, though no official figures are yet available. There does not appear to be any pressing need for an additional loan of £40,000,000. Nevertheless expenditure on account of the war will continue to be heavy for some time to come, and this will have to be provided for. Another reason why it is considered unwise to ask to fix the loan at less than £20,000,000 is (says The Melbourne Herald) that the public will naturally expect the amount of the loans to be on a gradually decreasing scale, and it would be most difficult for the Treasurer to increase the amount asked for in connection with subsequent issues if this course should be deemed desirable. The war loans raised so far have been as follows:

	Raised.	Asked for.
August, 1915.	£13,385,000	£5,000,000
January, 1916.	21,455,000	20,000,000
August, 1916.	28,888,000	29,000,000
February, 1917.	21,584,000	20,000,000
November, 1917.	21,214,000	20,000,000
April, 1918.	42,352,000	40,000,000
October, 1918.	44,000,000	40,000,000
Total	£188,232,000	£165,000,000

The Government has received authority to raise £238,000,000 under the various Acts passed by Parliament. The next loan is likely to be floated early in July, and, as it will be compulsory, Mr. Watt is not likely to ask for a penny more than the actual necessities of the situation demand.

WILL NEED CONSENT OF MUNICIPALITIES

Railways' Rights Curtailed by Bill Approved by Ottawa Commons

Ottawa, June 5.—Until the early hours this morning the Commons debated the contentious clauses of the Consolidated Railway Act relating to the rights of municipalities to control their streets. A Special Committee of the House recently defeated the efforts made on behalf of Toronto and other municipalities to have restored to the bill the clause struck out by the Senate relating to the rights of the Toronto and Niagara Power Company, which deprived that corporation of the privileges granted when it was given a special charter by the Dominion Parliament in 1902. The bill as passed by the Senate left the matter in the hands of the Dominion Railway Board, but this was not satisfactory to Toronto and other municipalities concerned, the fight being for complete control by municipalities of their streets.

Amendment. The debate yesterday hinged upon an amendment moved by Mr. Mowat, Parkdale, restricting the power of companies, even if authorized by special Act, to invade municipalities for any purpose whatever without their consent. The opponents of the amendment maintained that the Toronto and Niagara Power Company should be dealt with by a special Act, and not by a general Act, which might affect the rights of other corporations.

Hon. P. B. Carroll, Minister of Public Works, was one of the strongest objectors to the amendment, declaring that its adoption would amount to "confiscation of property."

Ministers Opposed It. Mr. Mowat's amendment was carried by 66 to 52. All the Cabinet Ministers present voted against the amendment, namely, Hon. N. W. Rowell, Hon. J. D. Reid, Hon. A. L. Sifton, Hon. F. B. Carroll, Major-General Mewburn and Hon. C. C. Ballantyne.

Mr. Mowat then moved another amendment to the effect that any other company purchasing the Toronto Electric Light and Power Company would be in the same shoes. This carried on the same division.

A motion by Hon. J. D. Reid to bring the employees of the Railway Commission under the Civil Service Commission was carried unanimously.

The bill then was reported, and now stands for third reading.

As the train was approaching a large Midland town it parted in the middle, and, of course, the communication cord snapped, the end of it striking an old lady in the face.

"What is the matter?" she exclaimed. "Oh, the train has broken in two," replied a gentleman who sat opposite. "I should just think so," replied the old lady, looking at the broken cord. "Did they suppose a bit of pudding-string like that hold the train together?"—Tit-Bits.

A MINIMUM WAGE FOR OFFICE WOMEN

Provincial Board Decides on $15 for Female Workers Over Eighteen Years

FORTY-EIGHT HOURS OF LABOR WEEKLY

Vancouver, June 5.—Within sixty days the minimum wage in British Columbia for female office help over the age of eighteen years will be $15 per week, and the hours of labor forty-eight per week.

This was decided by the Minimum Wage Board of British Columbia at a conference held yesterday in New Westminster. The conclusion arrived at by the conference after hearing evidence reads as follows:

"Female office employees—this term shall include stenographers, bookkeepers, typists, billing clerks, filing clerks, cashiers, cash girls, checkers, librarians, comptometer operators, auditors, attendants in doctors' and dentists' offices, and all other kinds of female office employees. The question is what is the minimum wage in these different occupations in British Columbia adequate to supply the necessary cost of living and maintain a prudent, self-respecting employee of eighteen years or over in reasonable comfort; and what are the maximum hours of labor proper for these employees?"

The Rulings. "It is recommended that it be unlawful for any employer in British Columbia to employ any experienced female of eighteen years or over engaged in office occupation for a wage less than $15 per week, and that it be unlawful for an employer in British Columbia to employ any such employee for more than forty-eight hours per week."

This was adopted by the Board yesterday and will become law within sixty days. Separate rulings will be made regarding inexperienced girls under eighteen years of age.

The next conference will take place at Victoria on June 11, when the wages and hours of telephone and telegraph operators will be taken up.

Bank Employees. The conference also submitted the following resolution designed to bring the female employees of banks within the scope of the Board: "Whereas it has been brought to the attention of this conference that a doubt exists as to the powers of the Minimum Wage Board of British Columbia to apply minimum wages and maximum hours of labor to the female employees of chartered banks and branches thereof in British Columbia: Be it resolved, that this conference urge the Minimum Wage Board of British Columbia to make every effort to bring the banks under the provisions of the Minimum Wage Act and the orders and provisions of the Minimum Wage Board in accordance with that Act."

Historic Geneva The World's Capital

Background and Associations of the Seat of the League of Nations.

By Julian Grande.

By selecting Geneva as the seat of the League of Nations, the city of Calvin and Rousseau, of the Reformation and the Red Cross, and of refugees in all times has now become the capital of the world.

For English-speaking people, Geneva, even now a city of only 117,000 people, will always be the Swiss town possessing a rich store of associations. No part of Switzerland, and, it may be, no part of Europe, has so many literary and historical links with England as the shores of Lake Geneva. For centuries past, indeed since Milton's visit in 1639, this has been the resort of those bearing great names in English literature; while for an even longer period they have been hardly less closely bound up with the great names of French literature. It was in Lausanne on the shores of the Lake of Geneva—Jean-Jacques wrote "the best three volumes of his 'Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire.'" It was on these shores that Byron wrote some of his finest poetry. His name will ever be remembered in connection with the Anchor Inn at Cuchy (still standing); nor is the "Prisoner of Chillon" likely to decline in popularity because recent research has shown that Bonivard, the original of the Prisoner, was as far as possible from having been the hero "sans peur et sans reproche" of Byron's imagination. Shelley also visited Geneva, with Harriet and Jane Clairmont, and in 1818 he and Byron went together to Lausanne.

The greatest English poet whose visit to this part of Switzerland is recorded was Milton, who set out in 1638, at the age of thirty, for the so-called "grand tour," arriving in Geneva via the St. Bernard with a letter of introduction to the famous Geneva scholar, Jean Diodati. Milton, however, has left but a scant record of his doings in Geneva. After Milton came John Evelyn, the diarist, then aged twenty-six, also with a letter to Jean Diodati. Early in the eighteenth century Addison visited Geneva. At this time he was only thirty-one years of age. One of the few travelers of the past who left a description of Geneva as he saw it was the poet Gray, who visited it, with Horace Walpole, in 1738. Even then, apparently, it had many English residents.

Another English writer who visited Geneva was Oliver Goldsmith, in 1755, when he was aged twenty-seven. Having lost his last shilling at play, Goldsmith set out on foot for the still fashionable "grand tour," his luggage consisting of his famous "clean shirt" and his only visible means of support being his flute. Later, in 1719, Wordsworth included Geneva in a long vacation walking tour, but it was Byron's prolonged residence on the shores of the lake which gave rise to what amounted to almost a custom among English poets and writers to visit Geneva and Lake Lemman.

Few novelists' names are closely associated with Geneva. George Eliot was there in 1848 and 1856, but she had published nothing of importance, and her portrait, painted at the time, is still preserved in the library of the university. A lively modern novelist, who has introduced English characters into some of his tales—Victor Cherbuliez—was born at Geneva of a Genevese family, several of whom attained some degree of celebrity. Indirectly only Mrs. Humphry Ward need be said to be connected with Geneva by her translation of Frederic Amiel's "Journal Intime."

The surroundings of Geneva have associations scarcely less full of associations. There is the village of Morne, on the Saleve, where Ruskin lived for a time after the completion of "Modern Painters"; and the villages of Ferney and Coppet, the scenes of two of the most famous French salons—that of Voltaire, from 1758 to 1778 at Ferney, and Mme. de Staël's rather later, at Coppet. Mme. de Staël's father, Baron Necker, was a Genevese.

In recalling thus a few of the men and women who have made Geneva and its surroundings famous I have, of course, referred only to those in whom most general interest is felt, and who are best remembered at present, passing over scores of others who had, nevertheless, claims to distinction in their day.

Geneva, however will always be memorable not merely for her attitude during the war, and for having been a city of refuge for political exiles and persecuted persons of all descriptions, but also as having been the seat of the Reformation, Calvin's city and the birthplace of Rousseau. The mention of Calvin recalls the name of John Knox, one of the many famous personalities, who, in the sixteenth century, visited Geneva. To the undoubted charm of its situation and to the beauty of its lakes and environment Knox was wholly insensible, but he did have eyes for its spiritual condition and it seemed to him "the most perfect school of Christ that was in the earth since the days of the Apostles."

Anyone at all familiar with the great names and associations of Geneva will constantly trace them in the streets—the Rue Calvin, the Rue Necker, the Rue Voltaire, the Rue Paroiss, and above all, the Rue Jean Jacques Rousseau, where Rousseau's father lived; the Grand Rue, where Rousseau himself was born, the house being marked with a memorial tablet; and the Promenade de la Treille, where, as he relates, his father and mother, in their courtship days, used to walk up and down on an evening.

Geneva's central and easily accessible situation, the fact of its being on neutral territory, no less than its connection with the Reformation, doubtless combined to induce the International Committee of the Reformation Monument to decide that this memorial, the "Protestant Wall," would be more appropriately erected in Geneva than elsewhere. The monument was not designed merely to commemorate Geneva's share in the Reformation, but the Reformation throughout the world—with the part taken in it by the Pilgrim Fathers and John Knox, as well as the continental Reformers.

Geneva is already an international city. Calvin's University is essentially international; Rousseau's monument is international; the very situation, to say nothing of the atmosphere of the city, are international. Its associations, as has been shown, are not merely peculiar to one country, still less to one city—they are connected with the whole world. No city, accordingly, could be better suited to be the home of the Society of Nations.

FARM LOANS for SOLDIERS

Agricultural Training For Soldier Settlers

A SOLDIER is entitled to the benefits of the Soldier Settlement Act if he can satisfy the Agricultural Qualification Committee in his district that—

- He has performed the required military service;
- He is sincere in his intention to make farming his permanent occupation;
- He is physically capable and is fitted in general to make a success of the farming business.

If he is otherwise qualified, but has not had sufficient practical agricultural experience, the Committee may recommend that he be given agricultural training. A generous scale of allowances for soldiers in training has been adopted.

Training Centres For Soldier Settlers

The applicant who is recommended for instruction in agriculture may first be sent to a Training Centre, specially operated for the purpose, where he will learn, by practical experience, how to handle and feed horses and other live stock; milking; the operation of farm machinery, ploughing, etc.; general farm building work; farm blacksmithing; the different kinds of soil and rotation of crops; the selection and judging of live stock and the marketing of farm products. Short lectures on the business management of a farm will be given.

With A Selected Farmer

After the course at the Training Centre, the length of which depends on the progress of the individual but will not exceed three months, the man is placed with a carefully selected farmer in the district in which he intends to settle, to complete his training. During this period (not exceeding one year), the soldier is visited from time to time by representatives of the Soldier Settlement Board, who check his progress and recommend when he is considered qualified to take up a farm of his own.

It will be evident that by this system of preliminary training the soldier settler will gain a thorough practical knowledge of farming without expense; will learn to appreciate the responsibility involved in the venture, and at the same time gain a clear conception of just what farm life means.

On His Own Farm

When a settler is deemed qualified by the Agricultural Qualification Committee, the Board will assist him to become established on a farm of his own, and will, through its Agricultural Advisers, continue to co-operate with him in his work, thereby ensuring his success and consequent ability to discharge his obligations and become permanently established.

Fair To Both

The procedure outlined not only gives the soldier an opportunity of first becoming familiar with his environment and of acquiring the experience requisite to success, but ensures adding to the nation's fundamental industry only competent and satisfied producers.

Detailed information regarding the provisions of the Soldier Settlement Act and further particulars regarding agricultural training may be obtained from the Provincial Superintendent, Pemberton Building, Victoria, B. C.

THE WORK OF GERMAN "EXPERTS."

The three German experts charged with the composition of a reply to the Allied Commission's report on the responsibility for the war have excelled themselves. According to a dispatch from Berlin yesterday a long memorandum has been prepared in a last frantic, but hopelessly stupid, attempt to delude the civilized world, and to chloroform the German people.

There is something pathetic about the suggestion of referring the whole question to an impartial commission, when the "experts" know that the world has long since digested Prince Lichnowsky's memorable disclosure of Teutonic duplicity. Then the document denies any sort of criminal collusion between Germany and Austria against Serbia, and avows that Sir Edward Grey's offer of mediation was, impossible of acceptance because Germany "doubted his ability to curb Russia's war-like aspirations." At the same time the "experts" declare that the proposal of the late Czar to refer the matter to The Hague was incompatible with an alleged simultaneous order for the mobilization of thirteen army corps. The idea of any other nation preparing when the goosepeters were actually in the field was, of course, an affront to Germany. The document winds up with the good old stand-by that Germany's war against France was purely defensive. Presumably the war with Belgium is similarly described.

We have only to refer to the various official records to get the true account of diplomacy's endeavor to avert a world war and of Teutonic determination to thwart those efforts at every turn. Sir Edward Grey exhausted all the means at his command to prevent a catastrophe, and it was really not until the European chancelleries and the general public became acquainted with the final Serbian note that Germany's intention unconditionally to provoke war, through Austria, became obvious.

On four occasions Sir Edward Grey proposed a conference of the ambassadors of Germany, France and Italy. Russia promptly gave her assurance that she would be quite ready to stand aside and leave the question in the hands of those powers. These are matters of fact. It was the fear that war would be averted which provoked opposition from Germany. The long and the short of it was, Germany expected—and hoped for—certain refusal to Austria's humiliating demands upon Serbia. That little kingdom swallowed almost the whole of the Austrian note in order to avert a European conflagration, while the two outstanding points could have been settled in an hour by a court of arbitration—and Germany and Austria realized that.

AS DONE IN RUSSIA.

According to a decree issued by the Council of the People's Commissaries marriage in Russia under Bolshevik rule has become an exceedingly free and easy process. Civil marriage alone is recognized and these are performed on the basis of the following rules:

1. Persons who wish to contract marriage declare (their intention) orally or by a written statement to the department of registration of marriages and births at the city hall (regional, district, township, Zemstvo institutions), according to the place of their residence.

NOTE. Church marriage is a private affair of those contracting it, while civil marriage is obligatory.

2. Declarations of intention to contract marriage are not accepted (a) from persons of the male sex younger than eighteen years, and of the female sex, sixteen years of age; in Transcaucasia the native inhabitants may enter into marriage upon attaining the ages of sixteen for the groom and thirteen for the bride; (b) from relatives in the direct line, full and half-brothers and sisters; consanguinity is recognized also between a child born out of wedlock and his descendants on one side and relatives on the other; (c) from married persons, and (d) from insane.

3. Those wishing to contract marriage appear at the department of registration of marriages and sign a statement concerning the absence of the obstacles to contracting marriage enumerated in Article 2 of this decree, and also a statement that they contract marriage voluntarily.

Those guilty of deliberately making false statements about the absence of the obstacles enumerated in Article 2 are criminally prosecuted for false statements and the marriage is declared invalid.

4. Upon the signing of the above-mentioned statement, the director of the department of registration of marriages records the act of marriage in the book of marriage registries and then declares the marriage to have become legally effective.

When contracting marriage the parties are allowed to decide freely whether they will henceforth be called by the surname of the husband or wife or by a combined surname.

As proof of the act of marriage, the contracting parties immediately receive a copy of the certificate of their marriage.

Handy and convenient is it not? Almost Marxian in its simplicity. A couple merely has to go to the registration office, sign a document declaring that none of the obstacles prescribed in Rule 2 is present and that the marriage is a voluntary arrangement, and the trick is done. The contracting parties immediately receive a copy of the certificate of their marriage. No questions asked, no pledges and so forth. Just "sign here, please."

Naturally the provisions for divorce are just as convenient—and Bolshevik. Rule 1 says "marriage is annulled by the petition of both parties or even one of them." According to Rule 2 the petition is submitted, according to the rules of local jurisdiction to the local court, and then, says Rule 6:

"Having convinced himself that the petition for the annulment of the marriage really comes from both parties or from one of them, the judge personally and singly renders the decision of the annulment of the marriage and issues a certificate thereof to the parties. At the same time, the judge transmits a copy of his decision to the department of registration of marriages where the annulled marriage was performed and where the book containing a record of this marriage is kept."

Lest we be accused of "grossly slandering and misrepresenting" the soviet we may add that the extracts we have quoted are from the series of "important official Russian documents" now being published by our contemporary The Tribune. It is hardly necessary to point out what the practical application of these decrees means for marriage and divorce, the invitation they furnish to vice, and the opportunity they present for the "maximum" social programme of the exponents of Bolshevism.

ACTION WANTED IMMEDIATELY.

To the Keatings district, particularly, immediate resumption of a train service between this city and Sidney is absolutely necessary if very considerable inconvenience and loss are to be avoided during the strawberry season. Berry growers in this locality have hitherto depended almost entirely for their transportation upon the Victoria and Sidney Railway, and unless facilities are provided within the next few days much valuable and delicate produce will be jeopardized.

More than two weeks have elapsed since the Chairman of the Canadian National Railways was advised by telegram of the passage of the Provincial Order-in-Council transferring to the Government-owned line running rights over the system of the non-operating company. But so far nothing has transpired to indicate the promise of action. While some days necessarily elapsed before the Order itself reached Toronto, there was nothing to delay the completion of such arrangements as may have been found necessary between the Board of Railway Commissioners and the national line as soon as it became known that the proper steps had been taken by the Provincial Cabinet.

When Mr. Hanna was first advised of the matter he undoubtedly appreciated the gravity of the situation that would immediately develop on the stoppage of train service. It was anticipated, therefore, that on the disposal of the necessary legal formalities—prescribed, by the way, by the Canadian National Railway's own legal adviser—train service would be inaugurated by the C. N. R. Enterprise on the part of the people's railway is now due and the berry growers of Keatings and district await action with no small amount of anxiety.

ALIENS BUTTING IN.

The participation by promoters of the abortive sympathetic strike in Seattle in the trouble in Canada will not help to bring about a peaceful settlement. On the contrary, judging by the activities of one of these outsiders in Winnipeg, it is calculated to prolong the difficulty. Mayor Gray says insulting references made by this man to returned soldiers have aroused strong resentment among the ex-service men and have made a violent collision dangerously near.

One of the demands of the strikers in Winnipeg is that the Government of Manitoba and the Government of Canada take certain action favorable to their cause. Whether this demand be reasonable or not is beside the point as far as alien agitators are concerned. What right have they to associate themselves with a domestic situation which has so intimate a bearing upon governmental policies in this Dominion? What would happen to a Canadian labor leader if he went to Seattle, advocated a complete tie-up, tried to influence Washington policy, and made insulting references to American returned soldiers? He would be given twenty-four hours in which to leave the community.

We have not observed that these Seattle emissaries have attempted to promote a general strike in their own city in sympathy with the strike in Winnipeg. If they were asked to do so they probably would want to know what Seattle had to do with a strike on the Canadian side, especially a strike which involved certain issues in which Canadian Governments were concerned. Their position is all the more anomalous in view of the fact that they are supporting elements on this side which are trying to destroy international organized labor.

ALL WELL AT COURTENAY

Promoters of the Empress of Asia land settlement scheme had plenty of time to work out their plans during their voyage from Liverpool to Victoria, and latest accounts of the practical application of those theories indicate success.

Lieutenants Walker and Kirchner, whose energy and enterprise in the project have known no bounds, report that already seventy-two actual soldier-settlers are clearing their own land at Courtenay. And so pleased are these men with the prospects, that thirty more veterans will leave Victoria and district for British Columbia's first community soldier-settlement within a few days. It is not hard to predict that in a comparatively short time it will be possible for the community in which this development is going on to make application for incorporation.

A SURE CURE.

If the authors and inciters of the war and the men responsible for its outrages are rounded up and punished, there will be a great drop in the Hun propaganda and a total collapse of the Hun bluff.

THEY SHOULD REFLECT.

The chief of the German envoys asked the allied statesmen to reflect upon the fact that a great many lives have been sacrificed owing to the continuance of the blockade after Germany had surrendered. The Germans should reflect upon this, too. Europe could not trust them—not for a moment. The loss of honor, the rejection of all the laws of morality, brings serious consequences sometimes.

Great Britain for her purchases in Canada to a greater extent than we availed ourselves of advances from the Imperial Government to meet our war expenditure in the United Kingdom and on the Continent. The result is that there is owing to us by the Imperial Government a balance after making the necessary set-offs of about $230,000,000. This is subject to reduction by an unascertained amount which we shall pay in respect of increased charges for ammunition used at the front after September 1, 1917. An inquiry is now being made for the purpose of adjusting this charge.

Resources. "Having indicated the extent of the financial burden which the war has imposed upon us, it seems advisable to pause to inquire how that burden is to be met. What are the resources upon which Canada is to depend to carry this huge national debt and the annual charge for pensions and other services which I have mentioned? We are to-day a prosperous community of high average productivity. I am now prepared to say that even without extraordinary effort we should be able merely to carry along the extra financial burden imposed by the war—increased production must not be minimized and it is for us to consider and put into effect such policies as may be appropriate to counteract the disadvantage under which we shall labor in this regard, and to insure the continued prosperity of our people notwithstanding this great national handicap upon their exertions. In this connection we would undoubtedly have in mind the great problem now over a long course of years of the debt by sinking fund provisions to be put into effect as soon as possible after the conclusion of the present year. With this in mind we must consider further for the present. What are our resources actual and potential which can carry the interest, pensions and other war charges and gradually extinguish our indebtedness due to the war?

"Produce and Save." "Let us for a moment consider some of the policies which are essential for the realization of the development I have outlined. Our ability to meet and retire our war obligations will depend upon our power to increase our production of natural and manufactured commodities and to economize individually so as to bring each year a substantial increase in the domestic wealth and savings and a more favorable balance in our international trade. In other words, the motto for the future, as it was for the war, must be 'Produce and Save.'"

Greater Population. "To increase our production greatly we need more population, and particularly that class which will engage in our basic industries. Our immigration policy therefore is of prime importance. We must fill our vacant cultivable lands. In the past we have not been sufficiently selective in our immigration. We are so amending our laws as to ensure that the destinies of this country will always be controlled by those who may be depended upon as loyal and patriotic citizens of Canada ready at all times to take up arms in her defence, no matter from what source aggression may come."

Agriculture. "As a great food producing country Canada is bound always to enjoy agricultural prosperity. The war has caused the death of millions of the rural workers of Europe, devastated vast tracts of cultivated lands, consumed the horses, cattle and other draft animals, and destroyed the implements of tillage. It must be many years before Europe is able to recover agriculturally from the effects of the war. In the meantime the hungry millions must be fed and it would seem certain that our surplus production will not lack for profitable markets for all it can produce."

Manufactures. "For the reconstruction work in Europe our raw materials and their products must also be in demand. Every effort must be made to develop and expand our export trade in manufactured articles as well as in the immediate products of our fields, mines and forests. The more highly finished the commodities we develop and export the more will we increase the price which it will bring to the Dominion. Our policy should be directed to ensuring so far as possible the competition within Canada, in Canadian shops, of the products of our manufacturing processes in order that we may obtain the benefit of the greater value of finished products as compared with that of raw materials or partly-manufactured articles."

"No doubt we shall be subject in this to the keenest international competition, and to succeed we shall require to avail ourselves of every assistance which can be legitimately secured by the Government in obtaining information respecting access to foreign markets as well as transportation and financial facilities."

Greater Capacity. "One of the most important assets which we possess as a result of the war is the capacity of our industrial production, which was turned during the war to such remarkable purpose in the manufacture of munitions and other material. In all departments of our national activity—agricultural, industrial, commercial and financial—the war discovered to the people of Canada capacity in themselves for achievement which they could not have dreamed they possessed. It is the presence of this capacity called forth their latent genius for organization, administration and efficiency. This high capability among all classes should prove of the greatest value in enabling us to deal with our after-war problems and burdens."

Caution Needed. "The question which now arises is, what shall be our policy in the matter of taxation for the present year. It is a year of great industrial instability and business uncertainty. If the war were still continuing it would be necessary to recommend heavily increased taxation in order that we might pay a substantial portion of the principal of our war debt. If it were not for special circumstances rising out of the transitional period from war to peace that course should be adopted, notwithstanding the ending of the war, because we shall have this year a heavy volume of what is really war expenditure—that is to say, our obligations to the Allies which involve the lives of our people, especially in mind the anxieties and burdens of the general public at a time of industrial unrest and high prices and endeavor to bridge over this troubled period wisely by giving such a measure of relief as may be practicable, having regard to the heavy financial obligations devolving upon us and our national debt in the eyes of the outside world.

To Borrow. "The cost of living in Canada has, in common with all countries, gradually increased during the war and is causing hardship to a large portion of our people, especially those of limited means and slender incomes. I am of the opinion that for this transitional period we are justified in adopting the policy of meeting only our ordinary expenditures and borrowing for our capital and demobilization expenditures."

"In considering the question of the reductions and increases in indirect taxation, most careful attention must be given to the effect upon established industry, and the position of operatives dependent upon its success for the maintenance of themselves and their families and upon the domestic trade and commerce which it supports."

After graduation, one season was spent in plant breeding investigations under Prof. W. J. Hayes, at the Illinois Agricultural Experiment Station and in 1904 he was appointed Lecturer in Farm Crops of the State College at Ames, Iowa. From this institution he secured his M. S. A. degree in 1905. He then returned to Canada and took charge of Cereal Husbandry at Macdonald College near Montreal and in 1907 was appointed Professor. He organized the first department in Canada to offer an instruction in Cereal Husbandry leading to the B. S. A. degree.

Cereal Husbandry. Professor Linck's Cereal Husbandry Department was organized with a specialist in charge of the following sections of field crop improvement and breeding work: (a) cereals, (b) root crops, (c) grasses, clovers, alfalfas and forage crops, (d) corn and soy beans. Among the many activities in which he has been interested perhaps the most prominent are the American Agronomy Association and the American Breeders Association. For two years he was chairman of the committee of the latter on Breeding Cereals. As a seed breeder and originator, Professor Linck has already done much to benefit the interests of the agriculturist. To his credit stand the following: (1) Quebec No. 28 Corn, (2) Quebec No. 96 Soy Bean, (3) Quebec No. 557-889 Bean, (4) Quebec Alfalfa No. 1.

then it may be decided by the Strike Committee to refer the question back to the unions which have not made their final decision. Everything depends upon the Strike Committee. Until it meets it is absolutely impossible to say whether or not there will be a strike.

The Strike Vote. "The voting on the strike issue has now been concluded, and the various unions have lined themselves up as previously reported—in these columns. The strike vote was taken secretly, ballots being forwarded to each member of the various unions, the heads of which state that the men did not vote while under the influence of speakers or agitators. Only the ballots which were marked one way or another were considered. These ballots, it is claimed, left no doubt as to where the member stood on the issue. It is interesting to note that some of the ballots asked the member to indicate whether or not he favored a strike in sympathy with Winnipeg. If concurrent action were taken by labor in Vancouver. When the ballot had been determined, a delegate responsible to his fellow-members was elected from each union to represent it on the Strike Committee. These delegates, it is stated, are not officers of the union and have only the strike question under consideration. The Strike Committee thus appointed is fully empowered to call a strike if it sees fit."

The Trades and Labor Council met last night but the strike question was scarcely discussed.

"Shipyard." "I reiterate that I have too much confidence in the sensible workers to believe that a strike will be possible," said Edw. E. Jenkins, assistant Northwest manager of the Foundation Company, when approached regarding the threatened strike situation. "On the whole the boys are a bunch of good fellows and I refuse to believe that any precipitate action will be taken."

They represent such organizations as the New York State Labor Department, the Women's Trade Union League, and the American Y. W. C. A. Their programme in Great Britain is to confer with the leading Labor women of this country, to visit factories, and to study the effect of four years' strenuous war work. They hope to build up an industrial world federation of women, which will ultimately help to establish political internationalism. A BEDTIME STORY

Uncle Wiggily and the Roses

Copyright, 1918, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate. (By Howard H. Garza.)

"Dear me!" exclaimed Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy one day, as she walked down to the end of her garden near the hollow stump bungalow. "This is too bad!"
"What's the matter now?" asked Uncle Wiggily Longears. "Have Jackie and Bow Wow, those two little puppy dog boys, been digging up your seeds?"
"No," answered the muskrat lady housekeeper to the bunny rabbit gentleman, "not quite that. But something has been eating my lovely roses. And I wanted to keep them nice to send a bouquet to Grandpa Goosey Zander."
"Ha! Some one has been eating your roses," Nurse Jane exclaimed. "Well, do you think Johnnie or Billie Bushytail, the squirrels, or Jimmie Wibblewobble, the duck, or perhaps Curly and Floppy Twistytail, the piggy boys, could have taken the flowers?"
"No, indeed!" said Nurse Jane. "They wouldn't do that. Some one seems to have been chewing the lovely rose petals, that are like satin velvet, and also, many of the green leaves are eaten."
"Then I just know who did it!" cried Uncle Wiggily. "I know who has been eating your roses!"
"Who?" asked Nurse Jane, all excited like.
"The Skuddlemagoor, the Skeezicks or the Pipsisewah! Either one of those had chaps!" said the bunny.

"I think so, too," said Baby Bunty, who hopped along just then, rolling her hoop. "Can you catch them, Uncle Wiggily?"
"I'm going to try," said the brave bunny gentleman.
"Oh, please don't!" begged Nurse Jane. "I don't want you to run into danger, Uncle Wiggily, and catching the Skeezicks, the Pipsisewah or the Skuddlemagoor would be very dangerous. The roses aren't worth it."
"Oh, yes they are," said Uncle Wiggily. "But I am not going to run into danger. The way I'll catch whoever is eating your rose petals will be this. I'll hide out here in the grass, and when I see the Skuddlemagoor, the Pipsisewah or the Skeezicks sneaking up to bite a flower, I'll run out, sprinkle some salt on their tails, and that will make them behave."
"Well, perhaps if you do it that way it will be all right," said Nurse Jane. "But do take care of yourself, Uncle Wiggily, won't you?"
"I will," promised the bunny rabbit gentleman. So he got the big salt cellar out of the kitchen, and then he hid himself in the tall grass near the rose bushes in Nurse Jane's garden.
"I'm going to hide with you, too, and watch," said Baby Bunty. "I can tell you when the Pipsisewah is coming, Uncle Wiggily."
"Yes, you may hide with me," said Mr. Longears. "You are a lively little rabbit girl, and you will not fall asleep yourself, nor let me."
"Indeed, I won't," promised Baby Bunty, and she kept tickling Uncle Wiggily with a piece of ribbon grass on his tipk. Twinking nose every time he looked as though he were going to doze off and fall asleep.
Uncle Wiggily and Baby Bunty had not been hiding and watching very long before, all of a sudden, the little rabbit girl whispered:
"Here comes the Skeezicks!"
"Eh? The Skeezicks? So he does!" spoke the bunny gentleman softly, and looking over the top of the grass he saw the bad chap sneaking along. The Skeezicks picked off a rose and held it in his paw.
"Now I'll slip out and sprinkle salt

The smartest wedding of the London season thus far was that of the beautiful Lady Diana Manners, youngest of the daughters of the Duke and Duchess of Rutland, on June 3, to Duff Cooper, son of Sir Alfred Cooper and Lady Agnes Cooper. Everybody was there, including Viscount Haldane, Mr. and Mrs. Asquith and all the young society set. An interesting report is that Lady Diana is considerably more than a figurehead. In aid of their Recreation Fund the patients of the Esquimalt Military Convalescent Hospital, held a very successful dance last night at the Alexandra Club. The general arrangements were in the hands of the Recreation Club committee comprising Major O'Hagan, honorary president; Pte. F. C. Platt, president; Pte. A. Dunn, secretary; and Ptes. Devlin, Mount, Bass, Youson and Sergt. Orling. ANNUAL MEETING OF UNIVERSITY WOMEN

Miss Bertha Winn Again President; Many Matters Discussed Last Night

Owing to the shortness of the club year, caused by the intervention of the epidemic during the fall, the officers and executive of the University Women's Club were, at the annual meeting last night, requested to continue in office for the ensuing year. Miss Bertha Winn will therefore retain her office as president; Miss Lexa Denne, recording secretary; Miss E. Davies, corresponding secretary, and Miss Rowlands, treasurer.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. F. C. Green, 341 Fowl Bay Road, and in addition to a representative attendance of club members, visitors to the meeting included Miss Patricia Smith and Miss Hazel McConnell, of the University of British Columbia.

Matters Discussed.

Numerous matters of importance were discussed. In answer to a letter from the Retail Merchants' Association on the local Oriental situation, the members appointed Dr. Helen Ryan and Miss K. Bradshaw as delegates to attend the meeting to be held under the auspices of the Board of Trade auspices, when the matter will be considered. The metric system also came in for consideration, the club supporting the idea that the system should be adopted as an international standard. The meeting also expressed its approval of the suggestion that the second year in arts be re-established at the High School, with a view to encouraging students to enter to continue their studies at a University.

President's Address.

Miss Winn in her presidential address touched upon the matters which might come within the club's activities during the coming year. She said in part:

"There is the new playground movement, which deserves our heartfelt interest and support. The British Columbia Child Welfare Association is about to start an all too long delayed effort to organize a chapter in Victoria; the members of this Club will be called upon to assist in that organization. There are questions of housing, of industrial conditions under which our women work, of sanitation and hygiene, of home economics, of the extension of public libraries, the Oriental controversy, and greater than all because more far-reaching, is the cause of education. These are opportunities which we as women of university class cannot afford to react to with indifference, for all our knowledge and training is of little use unless translated into personal power and service for causes that make for common righteousness and common brotherhood."

A review of the year's work was sketched in Miss Denne's secretarial report, which disclosed that eleven new members had been added to the club roster since the last annual meeting. Six meetings had been held, and the speakers had included Dr. Gowen, Rev. R. Connell and I. Dilworth, of the High School staff.

Visitors were by Miss Ede, accompanied by Miss A. J. deW. Moore, afforded a pleasing interlude to the business of the meeting. At the close of the meeting was made to the dining room where the hostess served delicious refreshments and a social hour was enjoyed.

on his tail!" said Uncle Wiggily. And he was just going to do this when Baby Bunty said:
"Oh, wait! Here comes the Skuddlemagoor!"
"Surely enough, into the garden came also the bad Skuddlemagoor."
"Two of 'em! This is going to be our busy day!" said Uncle Wiggily softly, as he looked to see if he had any more salt. "Well, I'll name 'em both! They must learn to let Nurse Jane's roses alone," said he.

Uncle Wiggily was just going to hop out and sprinkle salt on the tails of the Skeezicks and the Skuddlemagoor, when Baby Bunty caught him by the coat tails—she caught Uncle Wiggily, I mean—and pulled him back down in the tall grass.

"Look out! Here comes the Pipsisewah!" cried the lively little rabbit girl, in a shrill whisper.

Uncle Wiggily looked. Surely enough there was the old Pip, and just as the Skuddlemagoor and the Skeezicks had done, the Pipsisewah picked a rose.

"Now we know who has been eating Nurse Jane's flowers," said Uncle Wiggily to Baby Bunty. "Well, here I go to sprinkle salt on all three of their tails, and then we'll see what happens."

"Better wait," said the little rabbit girl, and as she said that the Pipsisewah exclaimed:
"Now, gentlemen, I believe we are all ready. Take a smell of your roses and then we'll rush up to the bungalow, grab Uncle Wiggily and take away all his roses!"
"Right you are!" growled the Skuddlemagoor and the Skeezicks. All three of the bad chaps lifted the roses to their noses to smell the sweet posies, when, all of a sudden, a big, black pinching beetle flew out of the rose bushes and pinched him on the nose. And a big black beetle flew out of the rose of the Skuddlemagoor and pinched him on the nose. And a big black beetle flew out of the rose of the Pipsisewah and pinched him on the nose.

"Wow! Wow! Wow!" cried the bad animals. "This is too much!"
And away they ran, not hurting Uncle Wiggily at all, and they never took any more of Nurse Jane's flowers. And because the beetles had been so brave they were given all the rose-leaf honey they wanted.

And if the umbrella doesn't run out in the rain and get its rubbers all wet so it can't slide down the ironing board, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and the washing machine.

TAKING NO CHANCES ON A COMMISSIONER

Premier Asks Each Aspirant to Head of Industrial Department to Write Paper

Premier Oliver stated to The Times representative this morning that an industrial Commissioner would be appointed some time next week. At the present time, he said, about a score of applications had reached him and it was his intention to discuss the subject with each applicant before making a recommendation for action by the Cabinet.

GUM TENDERNESS — A TOOTH-MENACE

It is true that four out of five people over forty suffer from gum shrinkage, or Pyorrhoea (Riggs' Disease). But many people even under thirty have Pyorrhoea. Women, particularly after the baby comes, are peculiarly subject to Pyorrhoea. At such time they cannot be too careful about their teeth.

Pyorrhoea commences with tender gums, or with gum-bleeding, at tooth-brush time. Gradually the gums become spongy. They inflame and then shrink. The teeth become exposed to decay at the base and tiny openings in the gums become the breeding places of disease germs which infect the joints—or tonsils—or cause other ailments.

Beware of that first gum tenderness! Try Forhan's for the gums. It positively prevents Pyorrhoea, if used in time and used consistently. No ordinary tooth paste will do this.

And Forhan's cleans teeth scientifically as well. Brush your teeth with it. It keeps the teeth white and clean.

If gum-shrinkage has already set in, start using Forhan's and consult a dentist immediately for special treatment. 35c and 50c tubes. All drugists.

TELLS DYSPPEPTICS WHAT TO EAT

Avoid indigestion, Sour Acid Stomach, Heartburn, Gas On Stomach, Etc.

Indigestion and practically all forms of stomach trouble, say medical authorities, are due nine times out of ten to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach.

Chronic "acid stomach" is exceedingly dangerous and sufferers should do either one of two things.

Either they can go on a limited and often disagreeable diet, avoiding foods that disagree with them, that irritate the stomach and lead to excess acid secretion or they can eat as they please in reason and make it a practice to counteract the effect of the harmful acid and prevent the formation of gas, sourness or premature fermentation by the use of a little Bismarated Magnesia at their meals.

There is probably no better, safer or more reliable stomach antacid than Bismarated Magnesia and it is widely used for this purpose. It has no direct action on the stomach and is not a digestant. But a teaspoonful of the powder or a couple of five-grain tablets taken in a little water with the food will neutralize the excess acidity which may be present and prevent its further formation.

This removes the whole cause of the trouble and the meal digests naturally and healthily without need of peppin pills or artificial sweeteners.

Get a few ounces of Bismarated Magnesia from any reliable druggist. Ask for either powder or tablets. It never comes as a liquid, milk or citrate and in the bisurated form is not a laxative. Try this plan and eat what you want at your next meal and see if this isn't the best advice you ever had on "what to eat."

CITIZENS INVITED TO SUPPORT ACTION

Large Gathering Expected To-night at High School on Cost of Living Subject

Following the example set by the citizens of Vancouver, New Westminster and Nanaimo, in response to the invitation carried by a delegation from the Victoria Women's Independent Political Association to the neighboring coast cities, Victoria will be asked this evening to go on record with regard to the High Cost of Living.

The meeting, which has been called by the Women's Political Association, will be held at 8 o'clock at the High School Auditorium. The School Board readily acceded to the request to supply the accommodation, in view of the limited number of premises in Victoria capable of seating a large audience. To the platform have been invited the Mayor and Mrs. Porter, Trustee Major Riddell and the members of the Legislature for Victoria, Saanich, Esquimalt, and the Islands, with their wives, also Mrs. J. W. de B. Farris.

Following Mrs. Ralph Smith, M. P. P., being unable to take the chair, Alderman Joseph Patrick has undertaken to preside, and he will introduce F. J. Stacpoole, K. C., who will move a resolution on the food question, offering certain remedies. The motion is based on the lines of the resolution adopted last month at a representative meeting of the women of the province in Vancouver. It will be seconded by Lieut.-Colonel J. W. McIntosh, M. P., leader of the Soldiers' party in the Legislature.

The other speakers will be Mrs. H. W. Graves, who is a member of the Association, and Dr. Ernest Hall. The doctor will briefly express the medical opinion on mal-nutrition of children owing to the food conditions.

All public and soldier organizations have been invited to have representatives at the meeting. Discussion will follow the speeches.

Organizations to carry on the work of the Provincial Women's Council have already been established in Vancouver, New Westminster and Nanaimo, and other cities are expected to follow suit.

HIGH SCHOOL TEACHER RETURNS TO VICTORIA

Arthur Yates is in City After Service at Front

Arthur Yates, one of the best known and most popular of the Victoria High School teachers, returned to the city this morning after service with the Canadian Expeditionary Force in France.

Before the outbreak of war Mr. Yates, who is a Rhodes scholar, taught English at the High School. Outside of the class room he coached the rugby team for some time and supervised the students' work in the production of "The Canadian."

Mr. Yates went overseas with the University Battalion and later transferred into the 5th Trench Mortars. From this unit he transferred into the 5th Field Battery.

Mr. Yates will proceed immediately to California, where his family is living at present.

POULTRY LAY EGGS WHILE COURT SITS

Chickens Uninfluenced by Proximity of Judicial Functions

The chickens involved in the County Court action of Rex vs. Tong, who is now being tried on a second charge of stealing poultry from Mrs. Villars, have caused considerable amusement during their frequent visits to Judge Lapsman's court.

At every hearing the Chinese baskets with the chickens inside are brought in and placed in the corner of the judge's left. While Crown Prosecutor J. S. Brandon and R. C. Lowe, who is appearing for the defence, are struggling with the mystery surrounding the thefts, the feathered ones keep up a continual chicken conversation. Most important of all, they have declined to permit the dignity of the Court to interfere with their share of increased production, and have laid an average of about five eggs per day.

This morning the lady who claims some of the chickens was in the witness stand and informed the Court that her birds could readily be identified by putting the matter to a test. She and her chickens were on such friendly terms that they would answer to her call. "Try it," said the Judge.

"It would not be fair in this courtroom," replied the lady.

Court was adjourned for a few minutes, and Judge, Court officials, lawyers, witnesses and chickens repaired to Hanton Street. A white Wyandotte was released from the basket, and stood blinking in the roadway. "Come on old girl," invited the lady claimant and to the surprise and amusement of the bystanders the hen started promptly for the doorway of the Court House. The case is proceeding this afternoon.

IN THE COURTS

The cases which commenced hearing in the Court of Appeal and in the Supreme Court yesterday afternoon are still in progress to-day. The Court of Appeal is hearing Dominion Lumber Co. vs. Hodgson, and in the Supreme Court before Chief Justice Hunter the case is that of Stewart vs. Molybdenum Mining and Reduction Company.

PRESENTS FRIENDLY CRITICISM OF CITY

Ex-Mayor W. T. Henry, of Edmonton Speaks at Rotary Luncheon

That the real avenue of development for Victoria lies in the making of the city the home for the weary workers from the prairies, was the statement made at the luncheon of the Rotary Club at the Empress Hotel to-day by W. T. Henry, ex-Mayor of Edmonton. While he did not detract from the fact that industrial development would play a large part in the life of the city he was thoroughly convinced after touring Western Canada and the United States for over twenty years, that the capital is the one place towards which the workers on the prairies turn their thoughts when they are anxious to give up their arduous life and retire.

During the course of his address Mr. Henry offered a little friendly criticism on Victoria as it appealed to the visitors as being a lack of cordiality. The speaker had just completed a trip to California, and no matter what town or city he entered there was always the sign of "welcome," and when he passed out there was the sign "Good-bye. Come again." This produced a sort of satisfied feeling.

Lack of Amusement. The lack of amusements here was quite apparent, declared Mr. Henry. In all his travels he had never seen a finer or grander natural beauty than Beacon Hill Park. Yet he expressed the opinion that scenery would appeal to a business man for a time, but that it would not be sufficient to appease his spirit even on a holiday. He heartily endorsed the movements for the establishment of the municipal golf links and the public swimming baths.

Mr. Henry pointed out the need of a better spirit of service in the stores. He told of several instances where customers were the unfortunate victims of gossip between the clerks. In one case a girl showed an article to a customer and then proceeded to ask another clerk if she had seen the fellow she was out with the night previously, and the two discussed very animately the advantages of the young man.

Mr. Henry always looked upon Victoria as his home and he was glad to notice that during the past few years the atmosphere of greeting had changed considerably, which augured well for the success of the city.

He concluded his remarks with the epigram "Victoria with all its faults I love thee still."

Pat O'Brien Speaks. Lieut. Pat O'Brien gave a most humorous talk on some of his experiences, which included his visit to King George V. In introducing the aviator, President Scott declared that the visitor was on his way to Siberia to start another war. O'Brien, however, denied the allegation but hoped that he would be able to entangle himself with a war when he had crossed the ocean. He hoped to join the Czech-Slovak army. This would make his sixth war. He thought that when he had seen this one he would most likely return to Victoria and settle.

Great outbursts of laughter were produced by some of O'Brien's anecdotes. The aviator deplored the prevalent feeling here over the attitude taken by some Americans as to the winning of the war. He was quite sure that this attitude was not that of the real American. The real American was behind Great Britain and realized what she had done in the war. He thought that it would have been a good thing had both Canada and Great Britain talked a little more about what their armies had done.

T. R. ROBERTSON, K.C., ACCEPTS CITY'S OFFER

The civic authorities have been informed by T. R. Robertson, K. C., of Halifax, N. S., that he will be available to represent Victoria in the Westholme Lumber Co. arbitration. Mr. Robertson is at present in the East, but he states that he will be able to come to the city any time after July 1.

Metropolitan Entertaining Soldiers. The trustees and quarterly official board of the Metropolitan Methodist Church will entertain the returned soldier members and adherents of the church in the schoolroom of the church this evening. Over 300 names are on the honor roll. The entertainers hope to see all the boys who have returned present this evening. A thoroughly enjoyable programme has been arranged and refreshments will be served.

DERNBURG'S SCHEME TO RAISE BIG FUND

Could Have All Germans Work Hour Daily for Government

London, June 5.—Dr. Bernhard Dernburg, German minister of finance, is devising a plan to raise 7,000,000 marks a year by means of a Government works hour each day, according to The Neue Zeitung. The plan will become a law, it is added, if the Government is convinced it is workable.

Dr. Dernburg's scheme provides that each worker in Germany shall labor an extra hour each day, for which the employers must pay a proportionate wage plus one mark overtime. The extra mark would go to the Government. Dernburg states there are 21,000,000 workers and that the plan would bring in more than 7,000,000 marks a year.

Berlin, June 4.—Via London, June 5.—An autopsy on the body of the woman found in the Landwehr Canal on June 1 has failed to establish that it was that of Rosa Luxemburg who was killed early in the present year by a mob. The condition of the body precluded definite identification. There were, however, no traces of bullet wounds or bruises.

The body is still being held under orders from the military court which conducted the trial of the men alleged to have slain Fraulein Luxemburg and Dr. Karl Liebknecht.

IMMIGRATION BILL GIVEN THIRD READING BY OTTAWA SENATE
 Ottawa, June 5.—The Government's Immigration Bill was given third reading in the Senate yesterday.

Senator Bradbury's amendment to clause 2, which would have expressly prohibited immigration from countries regarded as enemies at the signing of the peace treaty, an amendment which he said was called for by the blood of 65,000 Canadian dead, was rejected by a vote of 26 to 19, the majority holding that the matter was adequately dealt with by clause 12 of the Act, which leaves the question of keeping out all undesirable to the discretion of the Minister of Immigration.

The Government's supply bill encountered considerable opposition. Senators Bostock, Ross, Fowler and McLennan voiced severe criticism of the housing plan and the soldiers' land settlement scheme. Senator Longhead defended the Government's proposals. The bill was given third reading.

ALSACE-LORRAINE COUNCIL MEETING

No Abrupt Changes in Laws Contemplated, Says Governor Millerand

Strasbourg, June 4.—Via London, June 5.—The first meeting of the Superior Council of Alsace and Lorraine under the new French regime was held in the building formerly occupied by the German Ministry of the Interior of Alsace and Lorraine. Alexander Millerand, the Governor-General, in a speech in which he paid tribute to the people of Alsace and Lorraine, said that no abrupt change in the laws of the two provinces was contemplated. The city of Strasbourg was important in the cultural life of the people, the governor-general asserted, and would need a large appropriation from the French Government. The question of driving a tunnel through the Vosges Mountains, he added, would be taken into consideration.

France, he concluded, would do her best to justify the confidence manifested by the recovered provinces.

Rogers, national lecturer for the Theosophical Society, who has just returned from a long tour of Australia, where he spent part of the time making war speeches for the Australian Government. "The Soldier Dead" starts the course at Carter's Hall (opposite Alexandra Club) next Saturday night at 8 o'clock. State Insurance. The value of State Insurance was cited in an excellent address by Dr. M. Raynor. The speaker made reference to the many cases met by him in his professional career in which the patient was not responsible for the illness contracted, and so, contended, Dr. Raynor should not have to bear the responsibility of payment for medical attention. He declared that state responsibility for sickness and illness would prevent the filling of the jails, asylums and kindred institutions.

Munro Miller presided at the evening session, when Dr. Tanner and Dr. Ernest Hall were the chief speakers. Dr. Tanner gave an illustrated lecture on the care of the teeth, emphasizing particularly the importance of the proper care of the six-year molars, which were not baby teeth as many parents wrongly imagined.

Dr. Hall's Offer. The community's responsibility to the child in its midst was taken up by Dr. Hall. Declaring that no child should be allowed to grow up handicapped by physical defects, he offered to perform such surgical operations as the removal of tonsils or adenoids free of charge on children of men whose earnings were less than $100 per month. This offer, said Dr. Hall, was doubtless unprofessional, but it could not be considered unpatriotic. The social evil and the necessity of parents telling their children the truth about sex matters were other points dealt with by Dr. Hall.

Girl Guide Rally Postponed.—Owing to the strike on the coast service boats it has been considered advisable to postpone the Girl Guide Rally and Rally which was to have taken place next Saturday, until Saturday, June 28. The practice arranged for Thursday evening for No. 1 and No. 5 companies will also take place at headquarters.

"You Will Try the Nerve Food, Won't You?"

"YOU seem to think that it would help me."
"I don't think anything about it, I know it would."
"And how do you know?"
"From personal experience. Isn't that the surest way to know anything?"
"I guess you are right. But you know I never had any use for medicines."
"Not many people have so long as they are well, and you were always well until you had this nervous breakdown. That was just the trouble, you thought you could stand anything, and overworked until you had not an ounce of nerve force left. Now you have to build up the nervous system again."
"Oh, I will soon be all right."
"Yes, I think you will if you use Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, but you know you have not improved one bit in the last three weeks, and it's time you got something to help you. I was not a nurse for nothing. I know what you need and I never found anything in all my nursing experience that would build up exhausted nerves so thoroughly as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food."
"Well, I suppose I may as well give in, for I see you will have your way."
"Oh, I am so glad. I am going to send Bobbie to the drug store for half a dozen boxes right away."
"Why not try one first?"
"What is one box of medicine for a man whose nerves are in the condition yours are? This Nerve Food is not a miracle worker. It cures in Nature's way by gradually building up the depleted nerve cells. This is why the results are so certain and so lasting, but you must have a little patience."
"Oh, all right. You are the doctor. So we shall see what this Nerve Food will do for me."

CAMPERS ALREADY PREPARE FOR SEASON

F. Jeune & Bro., Ltd., Throw Interesting Light on Outing Prospects

With thoughts now turning to camping considerable interest has been shown within the past few days by camping enthusiasts and automobile tourists in getting together the camp equipment for the season.

A feature of the Jeune establishment is the splendid line of conveniences for auto tourists carried, which includes auto beds, tents, folding tables, wash basins, water bags, a complete cooking outfit compactly arranged and numerous other requirements. In fact there is nothing within the needs of the tourist or autoist that it is possible to make of canvas that the firm does not handle. The fishing creels are something novel, as well as useful.

SIDNEY CITIZENS' DANCE

Assembled on Tuesday Evening for Benefit of Aerial League of Canada.

A very successful dance was held in the Bequest Hall at Sidney on Tuesday night by the citizens for the benefit of the Aerial League of Canada, Victoria branch.

The dance was proposed and arranged by the people themselves to show their support of the league in its aims and objects in attempting to demonstrate commercial flying in this Province.

The hall was packed and all enjoyed the music provided by Mr. Heaton's orchestra. The dancing started at 8 o'clock and finished at 1, and what with the excellent refreshments supplied, made it a most enjoyable affair.

The Aerial League appreciates to the greatest extent the efforts of the people of Sidney in the manner in which they are supporting the league in its work.

IMPERIAL BANK'S PROFITS INCREASE

Reserve Fund Account Now Half Million in Excess of Capital

Directors of the Imperial Bank of Canada in submitting the forty-fourth Annual Statement to the shareholders were able to give a gratifying account of the business for the year ending April 30, 1919. One of the most pleasing aspects of the statement was the reserve fund which was increased by $190,000. The account now stands at $7,500,000 or $500,000 in excess of the bank's paid-up capital.

The bank was able further to strengthen its rest account because its profits were large. Total net profits amounted to $2,516, an increase of $62,000 over the previous year. The balance at the credit of profit and loss account from the previous year was $1,294,542, making available $2,452,459. In addition to the increase in the reserve fund, 12 per cent. on the capital stock was distributed in dividends, involving $840,000, pension fund absorbed $100,000, the different contributions to patriotic funds came to $24,500, the Dominion government war tax on bank circulation amounted to $70,000, after which a balance was carried forward into the current year of $855,453.

Expansion of Business.
The growth in earnings was the result of expansion in the business of the bank, indicated by the extension of the purchase of securities and the increase in deposits and call loans. Provincial and Dominion Government securities increased over half a million, and Canadian, Municipal, British, foreign and colonial public securities increased almost a million dollars. Current deposits expanded $1,570,000 and savings deposits were increased by $6,234,000, thus indicating an increase in the number of customers. Total deposits stood on April 30 at $83,198,234.

A striking commentary is given regarding the growth in the bank's business during the war by the fact that in 1913 total deposits amounted to $56,802,000.

That the bank has given liberal support to the business interests of the country is demonstrated by the fact that current loans outstanding amounted to $48,544,000, an increase for the year of $8,242,000, whereas call loans increased from $2,470,000 to $4,866,000.

An adequate index of a bank's financial standing is found in its quickly realizable assets. In the case of the Imperial Bank the ratio of these to liabilities to the public is above 60 per cent.

IN BUSINESS HERE FOR FOURTEEN YEARS

Adolph Lancaster, of Army and Navy Stores, Optimistic as to the Future

It was just seven years after the Klondike rush and while Victoria was still enjoying some of the benefits of the boom that Adolph Lancaster, proprietor of the Army & Navy stores on Johnson Street, first decided to enter into business here. In other words, Mr. Lancaster's business relations in the city have extended over fourteen years and during that time he has won favor with the buying public by strict adherence to business principles and consideration of his patrons.

"Yes, I have seen some busy times in Victoria and I have sufficient confidence in my home town to believe that there is plenty of prosperity in store for the future," said Mr. Lancaster. "It is now ten years since I located in these premises and I have made it a practice in buying my stock to patronize Union made goods. I am at present specializing in union made overalls and other Canadian goods made in Victoria, Vancouver and Edmonton," he concluded.

All lines of men's goods are carried by the Army and Navy Stores and Mr. Lancaster, who is a Londoner, carries as many English goods in stock as it is possible to secure under present conditions.

AMBULANCE WELCOME
Arrangements Be Made to Receive 13 Field Ambulance Next Week.

Arrangements for the reception of the 13th Field Ambulance are proceeding apace. A meeting was held in the G. W. V. A. rooms last night and Lieut. Webb and H. W. Devereaux were appointed to outline a programme and report at a meeting to be held of all returned ambulance men in the Veterans' rooms on Monday evening next.

The 13th Ambulance was organized in Victoria and assembled on Macaulay Plains.

Keep the Bowels Regular and You Won't Be Sick

If the bowels do not move regularly, they will, sooner or later, become constipated, and constipation is productive of more ill-health than almost any other trouble.

The sole cause of constipation is an inactive liver, and unless the liver is kept active, you may be sure that headaches, piles, heartburn, biliousness, jaundice, floating specks before the eyes, and many other troubles will follow the wrong action of this, one of the most important organs of the body.

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills will regulate the bowels, so that you will have a free and easy motion every day, and one pill a night for thirty days will cure the worst case of constipation.

They do this by acting directly on the liver and making the bile pass through the bowels instead of allowing it to get into the blood, thus causing many stomach and bowel troubles.

Mrs. Jos. Labrec, Louise Apts., Calgary, Alta., writes: "I have been troubled with constipation for the last two years. I have tried numerous treatments, but have never been relieved by anything until I used Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills which are helping me wonderfully."
We do not claim that Milburn's Laxa-Liver pills are a "cure-all," but we do claim that there is nothing better for a sluggish liver.
Price 50c a vial at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Hardware Demanded by Chinese Must Be of Good Quality

There can be created an almost unlimited market for all lines in hardware through China, says the London Times. It is rather a matter of deciding which articles shall be supplied, first, with a view to educating the Chinaman in the wider use of modern implements, utensils and furnishings. By means of a progressive campaign of this nature a desire may be fostered for all kinds of articles which enter into the routine of Western civilization, but are scarcely known in the interior of China. The results of such a systematic effort should be the opening up of an immense field. Imagine what the demand will be when China sets thoroughly to work in equipping herself on a scale commensurate with her great population with an adequate railway system, electric power and lighting, telephones, telegraphs, waterworks and modern sanitation. Although China's mineral wealth has been exploited to some extent and certain manufacturing developments have taken place in textiles, foodstuffs, tanning, etc., yet only the fringe of industrial enterprise has really so far been touched.

It was recently reported from Shanghai that a steady and growing demand existed there for kitchen utensils, axes and cash boxes, tin boxes, scales, spades, shovels, axes, tools, enamelled ware, bedsteads, lamps, wire netting and fencing, and wire ropes, and builders' hardware, including sanitizing requisites, door knobs, locks, hinges, window fastenings, bolts and padlocks. In addition hand pumps command a ready sale. Shanghai and Hongkong are the principal centres of distribution as well as consumption.

Careful Study Wanted
The tool trade generally requires careful study, as the Chinaman has some peculiar tastes in planes, hammers, braces, saws, etc. The British merchant has an excellent prospect of maintaining his share of Chinese trade. His customer there is conservative and prefers the old marks. He appreciates lasting quality in the goods he uses, and for that reason British makers have a good chance. Were this not the case the Germans, with their cheap tools, would have prevented Great Britain from doing the fairly considerable business she used to do in medium-priced lines. The German goods which this country ought to be able to replace include barbed wire, buckets, zinc sheets, quite cheap enamelware, oil lamps, iron padlocks, pocket knives and screw drivers. The trade in iron pipes is worth special attention.

The United States has been very successful recently in its trade in tools and implements, such as saws, small files, kitchen utensils and lampware. China is making its own brassware and certain cheap hardware, including tools of a primitive quality, such as chisels, blacksmiths' hammers, clippers, etc.

Conditions in Japan.
Much of the rougher kinds of hardware needed in fitting out the Japanese merchant fleet has always been manufactured locally. The great expansion in shipbuilding which has taken place of late years has naturally caused a very large inquiry for such goods, which has in most instances been met by a corresponding advance in local output. Nevertheless, the market generally is worth investigation. Just now, at any rate, there is an opportunity for the sale of large supplies of machine tools—such as lathes, planers, shapers, and the like—manufacture quite up to the desired standard in the case of either machine saws or the more finished types of carpenters' and mechanics' tools—e.g. screw wrenches. Importers will, however, have little chance of competing in spades, shovels, picks and other of the similar implements. There is business to be done in special times, but the United States is well to the fore. In harness fittings there is little import trade and as regards builders' hardware, much of the Western type does not enter into the construction of Japanese houses, while others, such as hinges, are made locally. Latterly the successful Japanese industrialists and merchants have been adopting Western styles more freely in the construction and fitting of their buildings and offices. Consequently there is a better demand for imported builders' hardware and metal fittings. This may prove only temporary, because the Japanese are quick to imitate, and the likely soon to fill all requirements by local manufacture.

American Share.
In cycle accessories and parts there is a growing trade, of which the United States seem to be getting more than their fair share. In 1918 Great Britain's imports into Japan amounted to £13,000 in value out of a total trade of £16,500, whereas in 1917 they amounted to £70,000 out of a total of £18,500, American supplying the balance of £38,500.

Japan is one of several countries where during the war the production of manufacture or leather has greatly increased. Boot and shoe making materials are therefore in demand. As regards cutlery, the United States have captured the trade which Germany used to do, amounting to about forty per cent of its total. Sheffield takes the remainder, but must not look forward to any automatic increase in demand. Japan is producing now a considerable quantity of the most saleable goods—e.g. knives of the kitchen type, rather rough scissors and spoons and has not yet acquired a wide taste in fine or even medium goods. There is, however, scope for pushing such trade amongst the Europeans there, the new Japanese millionaires, hotels and railway restaurants.

POISIES AND POISON.
There are many people who would have us believe that poison lurks everywhere, in some form or other. But who would expect to find it in flowers?

For instance, the laburnum is one of the most poisonous things imaginable, inasmuch as it is poison in leaf and flower and seed. Even the grass growing beneath it is poisonous, by reason of its proximity to the innocent looking blossoms overhead, and it has been found necessary to guard against cattle eating it for fear of fatal results.

The bulbs of such dainty and beautiful flowers as the narcissus, hyacinth and snowdrop secrete the most deadly poisons, not to speak of the oxalis, the monkshood, and the foxglove, all of which furnish noxious liquors sufficient to destroy life. Despite its innocent appearance, the buttercup is one of the worst of poisonous flowers. Even the cow avoids it.—Tit-Bits.

BEQUESTS TO ROYALTY.
The legacy of £100,000 bequeathed to King George by a New Zealand farmer is not exactly personal, since it is accompanied by a request that it may be utilized for promoting agricultural education.

There was no such restriction on the half a million pounds which the miser, John Neale, bequeathed to Queen Victoria, which was intended and accepted for her personal use.

Equally intended for personal use, though far less acceptable, was the handsomely-fitted vault in the neighbouring kirkyard left to Queen Victoria by an eccentric old lady of Balmoral.—Tit-Bits.

A BILLION A YEAR THROWN AWAY

A billion dollars is wasted on the American Continent every year through strikes and lockouts. This represents lost wages and lost profits.

The side which beats the other side to it in generous action is bound to have the advantage in the end. When capital feels itself injured by rules of the unions, let it rest its case on concessions and fair dealings. When employees want to get ahead, let them give a fair day's work for a fair day's pay.

The Golden Rule Is Good Enough for Everybody

There never was a time when the principle of conciliation was more needed in application than now, for if we are to hold up our present scale of wages, we must keep all the wheels turning. Every strike throws sand into the gear box; sometimes the employer is at fault, sometimes the union. Whatever happens, the public suffers.

The problem of establishing right relations between employer and workman was never so acute as at present.

The principle of give and take must rule in all differences between labor and capital, or industrial progress must stop. There are two sides to every dispute; both can't be right.

Let all these differences be brought out into the light and settled on a basis of Justice and Right.

TAX-PAYER IN WARD SEVEN.

SMOKING.

To the Editor.—I have noticed from time to time letters in the press anatomizing the smoker in general, but may I be allowed a little space in which to state the case from the point of view of a veteran devotee of "My Lady Nicotine?"

In the first place we must accept the practice of tobacco consumption as being a legal custom in all civilized nations. That being the case, we are committing no offence, statutory or otherwise, by an indulgence in the weed. In the second place, it being lawful to smoke in a public place—the street—it behooves the public services to supply suitable accommodation for their non-smoking patrons, and not, as some of your correspondents suggest, endeavor to ban the harmless smoker from acting in a lawful manner.

Now a very large proportion of the men who form our population are those who have come back from keeping "Frits" from Canada, and they have, incidentally, come from a country where smoking in all its forms, is not only tolerated, but encouraged. A country whose capital houses more people than the whole of Canada, and is, generally speaking, the "Hub" of the world, is one which it should not be had to take an example from—occasionally.

In Europe, generally, it is the custom to tolerate smoking in the theatres, street cars and all places where men congregate. There are, of course, places within these places, where the non-smoker and ladies may gather without being offended by the fumes of tobacco, but the smoker need not be compelled to put his pipe in his pocket if he wishes to go out for an evening's entertainment, as in Canada.

Take the average working man (and we are all working men here), who is a smoker. After breakfast he loads his pipe, lights it, and proceeds to work. If he is some distance from his work he can smoke for only the length of time it takes him to reach the car line. Then, when he is most physically fit to smoke (if smoking is injurious) he has, therefore, to put it out, and at a period when he could most enjoy it. In many cases lately he has found his pipe so enjoyable that he has carried out by standing at the rear of a car. Others have followed suit and to-day it is quite the custom for smokers to stand at the rear end of a car sooner than go inside and be denied the "fume" of peace. Naturally such practice has aroused the ire of delicate ladies—and other.

In Britain, when a man mounts a car he has no occasion to touch his pipe. He can go upstairs and indulge all his pleasures, and he reaches his work in a happier frame of mind. In the evenings he can drop into a picture show or other entertainment and enjoy himself 100 per cent. more by being able to follow his inclinations. In Canada, of course, we have no top decker cars, but we could have a portion of the car reserved for smokers. The "shows," could provide accommodation in their balconies without giving offense to the other portion of their patrons. The other evening I came out of a show and entering a car to go home (a considerable distance) found the car so packed with smokers on the rear platform that, wishing myself to smoke, I got off and walked all the way home. On several occasions, also, I have been subject to all sorts of sarcastic innuendoes from fussy old ladies (and others) as to my "ill-breeding," etc., for smoking on a car platform, but until recently when one can have the window down, I never travelled inside a car, which to me always appeared to be overpoweringly oppressive and foetid.

From a purely hygienic point of view the fumes from tobacco are admittedly a powerful disinfectant. Some years ago in the city of Glasgow, an epidemic of plague and smallpox was prevalent. Many victims were taken from the trains, and the "smoking" compartments were always full and overcrowded, mainly with women and non-smokers. No case of sickness was taken from a "smoker!" When one went down to catch a train one would find half the train empty and all smokers full. Why? In many of the best restaurants in London and the Continent smoking is permitted, though in many establishments pipes are taboo. I notice one of your correspondents draws in this phase of the case, which only exhibits a mind narrowed by, possibly, environment and want of travel. No. Let us encourage the smoker.

Ask any one who has returned from France, or other theatres of war, if smoking is not the best solace he ever enjoyed, and whether or not it steadied his nerves. Let us have smoking compartments on all our services of transportation and accommodation in our theatres, then we shall hear no more of this vexing controversy. By the way, you do not hear "smokers" complaining of the disgusting gum-chewing habit which is pretty prevalent here. It is a toss up, to my mind, whether the way some people chew gum, emitting a stale peppermint effluvia, is not more disgusting than some people emit who have believe smoking is however—"nuff sed."

SMOKER.

CO-OPERATION—NOT COMPETITION

To the Editor.—In this time of grave crisis it behooves the world to stop and think—to think deeply, to recognize that selfishness, like honesty, is the best policy, to realize that the greatest good of the greatest number is the goal for which humanity must strive. "Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them, for this is the law and the prophets." (St. Matt. vii, 12).

The problem of bringing permanent peace to the world would be solved in the carrying out of this scriptural injunction. The misery of humanity—man-made misery (not the will of God of which people prate so glibly) is the result of the rejection of the golden rule. "Thou shall love thy neighbor as thyself" St. Matt. xxii, 39). Unselfishness is the best policy—the only policy if the world is to be saved from disaster and its progress assured. We must profit by the lesson that the recent terrible war ought to teach—kindness and consideration for our fellowmen.

Capital has a duty towards labor—proper conditions, proper hours, sufficient wages that the worker of the world may have time and means to develop his heart, his soul, his intelligence as they are intended to be developed that he may become a good citizen of the world.

Labor has a duty towards capital—efficiency—industry: so that it may come to pass that as capital considers the rights of labor, so shall labor consider capital. Co-operation! Respect for the rights of others is the whole matter in a nutshell. This is the sign of the times—the writing upon the wall. Take heed, oh, children of the sons of men! You who have ears to hear and eyes to see and hearts to understand, take heed!

Oh world aroused from slumber,
And the apathy that kills
By four long years of travail
The grinding of God's mills.

Sink not again to slumber,
Arise that we may see
In the crowded years before us
A world more truly free.

Free from the old corruptions
That flames of strife do fan,
Go preach the only gospel,
The brotherhood of man.

Go deal with others justly,
As you would they deal with you;
No other creed is needed
To make our dream come true.

Think of the world's great sorrow,
Think of the blood and tears,
The ruined lives and broken hearts,
The grief of empty years.

Think of the lives so given,
Of the tears of those who mourn,
Are your hearts so hard and callous
This agony to scorn?

Think of the world's grave crisis,
Dark days of nameless dread
Grim, Want stalks like a spectre
And children cry for bread.

Awake to the world's great mission,
Repeat not Cain's vain cry:
You are your brother's keeper
Or the truth you crucify.

What future generations
Enjoying peaceful years
Shall father endless interest
On these—our blood and tears.

ROYAL VICTORIA

Neil Moret the popular song writer, gave the "Mickey" cast a great surprise at their studio one day, by an unexpected music recital in which he serenaded Mickey. There were many exclamations of delight, of course, since no one had imagined he had ever seen any of the scenes in this great photoplay, which will be shown at the Royal Victoria Theatre on the last time to-night. Miss Normand, particularly, was pleased with the song, which brought out in such sweet and melodious music, the very spirit of the photoplay.

To-day this song, which the photoplay inspired, is proving one of the most popular hits of the year, one million copies having been already sold to the public, songs and dance records having been made by the leading talking machine companies, and piano roll-companies.

There was a good deal of questioning later on as to how he knew anything about "Mickey." No one in the company had ever noticed Mr. Moret there during the rehearsals. In order to get some peace on the subject, therefore, he told them that he had first noticed Mickey when he dropped into the studio for a chat one day with one of the directors. At that time the very first scenes were being "shot," and attracted by the charming personality of "Mickey," he stayed the entire day. Two hours later, inspired by this fascinating photoplay, he wrote the song dedicated to "Mickey," and which he called "Mickey."

But why Miss Normand should be at all peeved, after the first surprise of the song, no one could quite fathom. As for Neil Moret, he set it down as "just like a woman." It leaked out, however several days later, when Miss Normand said she was "afraid" of Mickey. "It sticks so," she complained, "just as Peter Pan is identical with Maude Adams." Nevertheless, just ask Miss Normand some day how proud she is of her twin sister "Mickey." She loves that mischievous little girl as much as everyone else does, she has confided many times.

DOMINION
The penalty of sham is dramatically portrayed in "Extravagance," the latest Thomas H. Ince photoplay featuring the brilliant Dorothy Dalton, which will be shown at the Dominion Theatre to-day, Friday and Saturday.

PANTAGES

"Girls who want to go into the motion picture industry are very foolish if they are not prepared for a lengthy course in the most strict of all schools, the school of experience." Miss Martha Russell, the former motion picture leading woman, who is appearing at Pantages this week, in a comedy sketch, entitled "Rocking the Boat." "The moving picture stage is not the soft and easy road the press agent would have the general public believe. It is a hard, uncompromising grind which will steadily sap the strength and ambition out of the best of us. I have seen beautiful young women come to the studios and apply for extra work, get it, and be kept at it for weeks on end, and then be released just as if they had never performed any service or accomplished anything for a director. It almost broke their hearts. And it cured them of their screen-starring aspirations." Miss Russell was, for many years, a leading woman of the Essanay Film company, of Chicago.

VARIETY

Rose Peters trusted her employer and when he failed her she took vengeance into her own hands and then fled to her father, a relentless pursuer of all evil, who placed duty above love. And the father, who loved the motherless child better than life—what was he to do? His duty as an officer of the law, or protect the name, and perhaps the very life, of his daughter? What he did and what she did is portrayed with tremendous dramatic effect in "From Headquarters," the Vitaphone feature starring Anita Stewart, and which will be seen at the Variety again to-day. "From Headquarters" is declared to be the greatest police story ever told and the portrayal of the role of Rose by Miss Stewart is undoubtedly her most effective role.

COLUMBIA

Mystified by the silence of his sweetheart who promised to wait for him when he went West to make his fortune, Allen Spargo was speeding back home to learn why she had ceased writing. Crossing into New York City, a man falls from a ferry boat and Spargo, leaping into the water, saves his life. That night in his hotel he receives a letter from the man stating that under an ancient law he held himself his rescuer's bondsman and that Spargo had absolute rights over the remainder of his life. The following day Spargo passes the church he and his sweetheart attended in time to see her emerge the bride of the man whose life he had saved the day before and who had pledged him absolute control over his life and all he possessed. This is the powerful theme of "A Gentleman's Agreement," the Vitaphone Blue Ribbon Feature which will be shown at the Columbia to-day. Neil Shipman and Alfred Whitman are the featured players. Wallace Irwin wrote the story and his name is an asset with a big "A." String along with the booksellers with Irwin, for everybody has read or heard of his Rubiyat, his Fairy Tales or his Chinatown Ballads, and especially his Letters of a Japanese School-boy.

ROMANO

"Hitting the Trail," a World Picture, will be shown at the Romano for the remainder of the week. Carlyle Blackwell and Evelyn Greeley, the immensely popular stars, in the leading roles. The story is of love and regeneration and it concerns the adventures of Kid Kelly, leader of the Kelly gang, played by Carlyle Blackwell, and Flo Haines, also a product of the East Side, but a girl of refinement and a leader in an East Side mission. The story tells of the way the Kid and Flo meet, of their growing love for each other, and of the manner in which they finally achieve happiness. The story of "Hitting the Trail" was written by Roy Somerville, who has written a large number of screen successes, and the scenario was prepared by Harry O. Hoyt.

A Bit of Literary and War History

From The Toronto Globe.

Many competent judges say that Lt.-Col. John McCrae's "In Flanders Fields" is the most poignant of all the poems written during the war, and the most certain to have an enduring place in English literature. The incident that led to the writing of the verses is recalled by the return to Canada of Lt.-Col. L. Miller Cosgrave, D. S. O., who last week brought back to Ottawa for demobilization the First and Second Batteries of Canadian Field Artillery. As the "baby" substitute, Lieut. Cosgrave answered Col. now General Morrison's call to join the battery on August 9, 1914, and was at the front with the guns continuously till March, 1919. The First Brigade Canadian Artillery went into line along the Yser Canal in February, 1915, and there on May 2, during the fierce canonading that accompanied the attempt of the enemy to force the passage of the Yser and the Canal ports, Lieut. Alexis Helmer, an officer of the battery, was killed. Morrison, McCrae, Cosgrave and other officers were present at the hasty burial of Helmer's body in a shell-torn trench on the canal bank, where despite all the churning of the surrounding ground, it still rests undisturbed.

Near by and closer to the canal is one of the irregular patches of burial ground near the front, where were buried British, French, Belgian, Moroccan and Canadian dead, beneath their crosses "row on row." The poppies were beginning to bloom and the larks were singing when young Helmer was laid away with the smile on his face that sudden death had not disturbed. Col. Cosgrave says McCrae was deeply moved during the burial. He went to his dugout muttering to himself like a man putting an idea into suitable words, and in twenty minutes came back with the verses, "In Flanders Fields," substantially as they were afterwards printed.

Mrs. Helmer mother of the young officer whose death gave Col. McCrae his theme, did not know of the friendship between the poet and her son until Col. Cosgrave told her last week at Ottawa.

McCrae, killed by overwork, followed Helmer to a resting place at the front. Col. Cosgrave came through and is back home in Toronto. His D. S. O. is one of the relatively few that have a bar to it. The original decoration was won on the Somme in 1916, out beyond the sunken road at Courcellette, when in a reconnaissance of the front line he discovered and guided back two companies of a Canadian battalion that had got lost. The bar was added because of signal bravery in the saving of life on the Zonnebeke road, during the Passchendaele operations of 1917. Eight lorries loaded with 9.2-inch and 8-inch shells were on the way up to the guns when the Germans, who had direct observation on the ground, began to shell the lorries and the marching men who also occupied the road. A direct hit set one of the lorries and its contents on fire and the great shells began to explode, carrying death and wounds to dozens of men round about. The officer in charge of the convoy was killed and most of the men. Col. Cosgrave had a young lorry driver, who got a D. C. M. for his fine services, ditched the burning lorries and collected the wounded, placing them in safety in shell holes near the roadside, where the fragments of the exploding ammunition passed over them harmlessly. That is why the "baby" of the battery, who went off to the front almost five years ago as a Junior Lieutenant, comes back as Lt.-Col. Cosgrave, D. S. O. with a bar. That and a fine record of over four years of active service which ended at Mons, where he commanded the artillery of the 9th Brigade.

VICTORIA THE NORTHWEST THE WORLD

Foundation Boxing Tournament Promises to Be a Real Event

Shipbuilders Have Spread Themselves to Make a Success of Their Initial Effort.

There is every indication that the Foundation boxing tournament Friday will be the largest tournament staged in Victoria for many years.

Judging from the big advance sale of tickets, it is anticipated that there will be a capacity house, and anyone wishing to reserve tickets is advised to phone Secretary Bob McLellan at the Foundation Club, No. 5625.

Mr. E. E. Jenkins, Mr. J. E. McCormack, Joe McKay, Geo. Mann and other officials of the Foundation Company have signified their intention of attending the bouts.

Large numbers of supporters are coming down from up-Island points to witness the bouts. Inquiries have also been received from Vancouver regarding the sale of tickets for the tournament.

The services of Billy Lewis to act as referee have been secured. Billie Hall and Frank Stevenson will act as judges. These two gentlemen have always proven in the past that they are thoroughly conversant with the boxing game.

Every bout will be keenly contested, especially the 115-pound class and the 135-pound class, in which Charlie Pica and Charlie Martin will compete.

Nearly $150 was netted for Cy Forsythe, the Tyees' regular first sacker, at the benefit game at Royal Athletic Park yesterday when Jim Brown's boys made their last appearance for the home fans before they depart to pastures new and connect with other baseball teams for the rest of the season.

WILLARD'S PARTNER CAME HERE TO FIGHT

Caused Many Good Dollars in Expenses, But Never Got Started

Jack Hemple, at present in the camp of Jess Willard, acting as a human punch bag for the heavyweight champion, has made a rise in the pugilistic world during the last six years.

Hemple then jumped to Nanaimo, and was matched with a promising English heavyweight in the up-Island city who had got a decision over Gunner Moir.

After their experience with Hemple they will read with a certain amount of optimism what Jess is doing with his sparring partners.

Walter Monahan, who is in Willard's camp on a furlough from the army, boxed with the champion for the first time in several months and hit the canvas in a dizzy condition after boxing two minutes.

Willard's partner came here to fight. He was expected to fight Jess Willard, but Jess shot out a left jab and missed. He followed it with a short, straight left-handed punch to the peak of the chin and Monahan tumbled into a heap.

GIRLS EAGER TO SERVE ON BOATS

Many Applications Received by C. P. R. Since Strike Was Declared

The only development in the waterfront strike situation to-day is the ready response of young ladies who are prepared to shoulder the duties of stewards aboard the C.P.R. coastwise boats.

The Princess Adelaide is continuing to maintain the daily service to and from Vancouver and is carrying large crowds in view of the curtailed service.

Officers' Position The officers of the C.P.R. who are members of the Canadian Merchant Service Guild, following a meeting in Vancouver, informed the company that they did not favor a sympathetic strike and, sooner than cause the complete isolation of Victoria, would continue to operate the boat themselves.

The steamships Princess Victoria and Princess Charlotte remain tied up at the wharf here.

The Princess George men were called out on arrival at Vancouver from Prince Rupert, but they refused to obey the order until the ship had returned to Vancouver from Victoria and Seattle.

The crew of the Island Princess refused to walk ashore until the customary forty-eight hours' notice period had expired.

The steamer Charley was on the way of the Victoria Machinery Dept. undergoing overhaul.

Advantage is also being taken of the present situation to effect necessary repairs to the C.P.R. Belleville Street wharf.

COLONEL BALLANTYNE IS COMING TO COAST

Vancouver, June 5.—The appropriation of $5,000,000 authorized to be set aside for the development of Vancouver Harbor by the Dominion Government will be passed at this session of the House at Ottawa.

So said Harbor Commissioner Sam McClay, who returned to Vancouver last evening after a stay of a month in Ottawa, where he was summoned by the Minister of Marine and Fisheries, Hon. C. C. Ballantyne, in connection with the proposed improvements to Vancouver Harbor.

There is no doubt in my mind that the money will be voted," said he. "Colonel Ballantyne has authorized me to inform the public of Vancouver that he will arrive in Vancouver in August for a personal inspection of all the sites of the proposed developments."

"In the meantime he has instructed the Board of Harbor Commissioners to take comprehensive and accurate borings both on the Klaskan Indian Reserve and elsewhere and on Burrard Inlet, on both the north and south shores, for the information of the engineers who will draw up the plans for the proposed developments."

BLACKFISH APPEAR IN SOUND WATERS

Seattle, June 5.—Beating the salmon to it as usual, blackfish again are appearing in Puget Sound, several schools having been sighted. The blackfish and salmon follow the herring and sardines into the Sound toward the end of each spring, but the blackfish invariably get here first.

Both blackfish and salmon prefer herring and sardines for breakfast, dinner and supper, and as a pick-up between meals. Puget Sound is one of their favorite dining places during the summer.

N. Y. K. REPORTS LARGER EXPENSE AND SMALLER GAIN

Allotment of $6,500,000 Made to Write Off Company's War Charter Rates

According to particulars published by the Nippon Yusen Kaisha regarding the company's business conditions for the six months ending March 31, 1919, gross receipts amounted to over $62,365,000, a decrease of $5,650,000 on the previous six-month period, while expenditures totalled over $43,845,000, an increase of $8,995,000. From the balance of receipts various reserves are deducted and the net profit amounts to $18,520,000, showing a decrease of $10,245,000 on the previous term. The total rate of dividends has been reduced from 60 per cent. per annum for the previous term to 50 per cent.

A special feature about the disposal of the last term's profits is the allotment of $6,500,000 for writing off war charter rates. This assignment is explained by the management as follows: "The amount allotted corresponds to the total difference between the rates at which vessels were chartered during the war, such charter contracts being renewed for the next business term, and the rates now quoted on the market. The company has to pay a far higher rate than is current in order to operate the boats themselves, but the present allotment to write off the difference between war and current rates strengthens the position of the company."

It is understood that the rates at which the Nippon Yusen Kaisha chartered vessels average about $15, as against $4 to $5 now quoted on the market. That the company has to pay a far higher rate than is current is considered the source of weakness, but the present allotment to write off the difference between war and current rates strengthens the position of the company.

Capt. F. C. Stratford Says General Serrett Best Ship He Ever Sailed In

The best ship ever sailed in, declared Capt. F. C. Stratford in speaking of the voyage of the 3,000-ton five-masted auxiliary schooner General Serrett from Portland to France.

The General Serrett is one of twenty vessels of her type built by the Foundation Company at its Portland yard, twenty other ships of the same class having been turned out by the company at Tacoma.

During the passage across the Atlantic the General Serrett fractured her starboard tail-shaft, the break occurring between the shaft-log and the strut. The broken shaft and propeller was made fast with lashings and the vessel, under sail and with the aid of the port propeller, proceeded to the Azores where the damaged shaft was removed and taken on deck.

Despite the handicap in the loss of one power wing the General Serrett made a splendid passage and, as previously reported, reached Nantes on April 14.

The vessel made steamer time in crossing the Atlantic. She departed from this coast last December and proceeded to Nantes via the Panama Canal and Gaiveston.

Capt. Stratford is particularly well-known in shipping circles here, both as a navigator and salvage expert. For some years he was in command of the Salvor and has a large number of fine salvage jobs to his credit, including the former German steamship Senator, now known as the Frances L. Skinner.

Capt. Stratford may be appointed to take home one of the French steamships being completed by the Dry Dock Company, before sailing for the Orient on May 18 last, had been pronounced one of the finest products of Seattle shipyards, and when the report reached here that she was returning from sea in distress, considerable speculation was indulged in as to the cause of the mishap.

IRISH MARINER GOES ON WITNESS STAND

Puako Murder Charge is Being Investigated in New York

New York, June 4.—Added details of the mutiny, murders and manhandling alleged to have occurred on the fatal voyage of the barquentine Puako were told in the brogue of a seasoned Irish mariner in the district court to-day when the trial for the murder of a seaman, of Adolph Pedersen, captain of the vessel, and Adolph, his son and mate, were resumed.

Edward Reilly, the witness, first corroborated yesterday's testimony of John W. Campbell, former cabin boy, as to how Axel Hansen met his death. He told how Hansen pleaded with the officers to stop beating him, how in desperation Hansen threatened to jump overboard to escape punishment, and how, when the mate is alleged to have jeered at this, he did leap over the rail into the sea and was left to perish. Then he said, Captain Pedersen summoned him to his cabin and asked him to sign a statement as to what happened.

"I looked at it," said Reilly, "and said I did not recite what happened. I said I would not sign. The captain jumped out of his bunk, took a revolver from a drawer and thrust it against me, saying: 'Will you sign it, or will you not?' I was forced to sign.

Reilly was followed to the stand by Jack Joe, the helmsman, and who the earlier witness testified, had been ordered to put the ship back about on its course, after he had started to swing about to rescue Hansen.

Joe corroborated this testimony, explaining that he could not disobey Captain Pedersen's order. He testified that he could not read or write, but that he had made his mark on an affidavit prepared by Captain Pedersen, fearing that he would be beaten if he refused.

James Campbell, of Kingston, Ont., the last witness called before adjournment, testified that he had seen Hansen beaten almost into insensibility on two occasions before he leaped overboard. On both occasions, he declared, Captain Pedersen stood over Hansen, who was in irons, demanding that he confess he had planned to sink the Puako.

SURVEYORS INVESTIGATE WESTERN KNIGHT MISHAP

Seattle, June 5.—That the flooding of two of the after holds of the big steel steamer Western Knight, which returned from sea May 21 last, was due to no flaw in her hull construction has been established beyond a doubt, according to marine underwriters and surveyors, who have followed the inquiry into the cause of the leakage discovered on the vessel.

This announcement was made by inspectors of several marine services other than the United States steamboat inspection service, which, under an official body, will not make public its findings until it has concluded its investigation and fixed the blame.

The Western Knight, built by the Ames Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company, before sailing for the Orient on May 18 last, had been pronounced one of the finest products of Seattle shipyards, and when the report reached here that she was returning from sea in distress, considerable speculation was indulged in as to the cause of the mishap.

MAXIMS OF A MILLIONAIRE.

Mr. Henry Ford, the famous motor-car manufacturer, has established a weekly newspaper to spread his views on social, economic, national, and international questions. In the first number of The Dearborn Independent he writes:

"We are in great need of new developments in industry for many reasons. During the war we found many leaks in our industrial system, and found many businesses which the Government described as non-essential. They were wasting good labor and material in producing things that we should have been better without."

"It is a bad thing to make business by making articles that serve no one. I would rather hear that a man had made a million ploughs than that he had made a million dollars."

"BARNEY" RESUMING DUTIES AS PILOT

Lieut.-Com. B. L. Johnson, D.S.O., Home With Remarkable War Record

Vancouver, B. C., June 5.—Lieutenant-Commander B. L. Johnson, D.S.O., R.N.R., arrived here yesterday after nearly five years' service with the Royal Navy and he will soon resume his duties as a Vancouver pilot. "Barney" Johnson was a well-known and popular master-mariner, having held command of passenger ships of the Union Steamship Company, and of the G. T. P., before entering the pilotage service. When war broke out he proceeded to Esquimalt and was given a commission with the R.N.C.V.R., and soon after became navigating officer of one of the submarines acquired on the initiative of the late Sir Richard McBride.

When an American firm assembled a number of submarines at Montreal for the British Government, Capt. Johnson was selected to take one of the divers across the Atlantic. He made the voyage in the H-3 successfully, and retained command of the diver. He is said to be the only merchant captain to be given command of a "sub," although many acted as navigators. It was while in the H-3 that Lieut. Johnson, as he then was, performed the act which led to his promotion to Lieut.-Commander, Royal Naval Reserve, and his appointment to the Distinguished Service Order.

Outstanding Feat. The H-3 was cruising off the German coast, and while submerged at a depth of sixty feet struck a mine which practically blew off her bow as far as the forward bulkhead. The men on the submarine thought they had been hit by a depth charge. The submarine plunged nose down to a muddy bottom, but there was no panic, although the diver was almost perpendicular.

"The men were fine," says Lieut.-Commander Johnson. "Water" was being forced in and it was decided to take a chance with the German destroyer which was supposed to be above them, and after very careful work in which the cool-headed action of Lieut.-Commander Johnson was the prime factor, the damaged H-3 emerged. Finding nothing in sight, he shaped his course for his base of Harwich, 100 miles across the North Sea, and he brought home the battered hull successfully. When they tied up alongside the mother ship it was discovered that the warheads of some torpedoes were projecting through the wreckage. Articles for the peace of mind of all hands they were unaware of this during the voyage across the North Sea.

PACIFIC MAY LOSE JAPANESE SHIPPING

Seattle, June 5.—Fifty of the newest and largest carriers of the Japanese merchant marine which have been plying in the trans-Pacific trade are to be diverted to Europe laden with oil, rice and other foodstuffs, depleting the fleets of vessels which have been operating to this coast and resulting in an immediate advance in freight rates from Seattle to all ports in the Far East, according to advices received in this city from Japan.

The problem of feeding Europe, devastated by more than four years of war, is to be solved by shipping huge quantities of foodstuffs from the Orient and Antipodes to France, Belgium, Poland, Rumania, Bulgaria, Servia, Italy, Germany and Austria. It was explained that an effort will be made to feed not only the nations which fought with the Allies in the war, but also the Central Powers and their allies.

An interesting situation in shipping is expected to result from the diverting of the big fleet of Japanese carriers to Europe, as the vessels will go from Australia, Japan and the countries in the Far East to the war-torn nations overseas via the Suez Canal and the Mediterranean.

WOULD INCREASE RATES.

What will become of this tonnage after the vessels discharge their cargoes in Europe? Will the carriers remain on the Atlantic or will they be sent back to the Orient via Seattle?

"These questions are puzzling shipping men in this city, who say that in all probability an effort will be made to obtain cargoes for them in New York, Philadelphia, Boston, Baltimore or New Orleans. Virtually no freight is available in Europe and the vessels must be sent in ballast at least on their trans-Atlantic voyages. The question of where they will load for their homeward voyage is puzzling Seattle shipping men, who say that the routing of the fleet will vitally affect this port's commerce for the next few months.

One result of the diverting of the fleet of Japanese carriers from the trans-Pacific route to Europe, which shipping men say is sure to come, is an immediate advance in freight rates from Seattle to ports in the Far East. The present rates from Seattle to Japan are $12 a ton for steel and $14 a ton for measurement cargo. It is expected that the rate on steel will be advanced to $15 a ton and the rate on measurement cargo, which will not be as great an upward tendency, will probably be quoted at the same figure. These advances in trans-Pacific rates are expected to occur within the next ten days as the result of a scarcity of tonnage operated between this port and the Far East.

INDIAN DANCE WILL BE LAUNCH FEATURE

Seattle, June 5.—Among the most original of launching ceremonies yet held in this country, it is believed, will be those attendant upon the launching of the new 1,000-ton, 1,200-hp. steamer Snoqualmie. Named after the Indian tribe of that name, the Snoqualmie will enter the water as Indians dance and carry on other tribal ceremonies. The vessel is being built by the Puget Sound Bridge and Dredging Company.

CAMOSUN CHAPTER

Recent Bridge Tea Netted $170.95 for Widows and Orphans' Fund.

The Camosun Chapter, I. O. O. E., held its regular monthly meeting yesterday in the new headquarters in the Jones Building. A letter was read from Miss Macklin re the fund for Armenian relief, and a donation of $25 was made towards this fund.

The treasurer reported that the total receipts to date for the bridge tea held at the home of the regent, Mrs. Andrew Wright, amounted to $170.95. It was decided to give the proceeds of this tea to the Widows and Orphans' fund.

A standing vote of thanks was passed to Mrs. Andrew Wright for the use of her home on this occasion.

Mrs. Love reported that on behalf of the chapter she had attended the inspection of the High School Cadets, and also that the tickets handed to the chapter for the Navy League cabaret had all been sold. She also reported that Mrs. Campbell, of the Zenana Mission, would address the Dainty Chain Chapter at her home on June 7, and wanted members of Camosun Chapter to attend.

Miss Agnew was appointed as the chapter's representative to the Girl Guides. Three sweaters were received from members, two having been generously donated by Mrs. Love. The chapter voted to purchase pictures of the King and Queen for presentation to the High School. It was also decided to hold the annual picnic for the men of the various convalescent hospitals, at the Yacht Club on July 21, and Miss Agnew was appointed convener of the refreshment committee.

Mrs. A. Drummond Hay was presented and enrolled as a member of the chapter.

PRESIDENT CASTRO GIVES RESIGNATION

But Congress of Portugal Asks Him to Reconsider Decision

Lisbon, June 3.—President Castro presented his resignation to Congress yesterday. Congress voted to ask the President to reconsider his action yesterday.

There have been disorders in Portugal during the last few months. The most recent occurred in May, which, according to reports, was put down by Government forces. The disorders were incident to a movement toward the re-establishment of a monarchy, the Conservative Party being reported to have given the monarchists at least its moral support.

HOW FOGS ARE MEASURED.

An ingenious invention for measuring the density and quality of fogs has been perfected by Dr. John S. Owens, of the Meteorological Office.

According to his explanation, fog is merely filth suspended in the air, and his appliance takes a record of the atmospheric impurities, but it does not analyze. The records are taken on circular discs of filtrated paper. These discs are spaced off into sectors and numbered like a clock. They are then placed upon a clockwork arrangement after the fashion of a record on a gramophone, and at set intervals during the day a current of air is admitted to the paper records by means of an aperture, which focuses the current on to the part of the disc marked with the time of day. That is to say, at 10 a. m. the air current is focused on that part of the disc numbered 10.

Dr. Owens explained that during the night the records are almost white, denoting comparative purity of air, but during the day, as the workers rose and the fires in homes and factories were lighted, the color became darker.

The color grows darker as the day goes on, and then, as the afternoon gradually passes, the impressions get lighter in color once again, until by 6 o'clock the impression is once more almost white.—Tit-Bits

FOUNDER OF I. O. D. E. WOULD ADMIT PEOPLE OF COLOR TO ORDER

Mrs. Clark Murray of Toronto Addressed National Chapter's Annual Meeting

Mrs. Clark Murray, the founder of the I.O.D.E., in her address at the annual meeting of the National Chapter, held last week in Montreal, made a plea on behalf of colored people, asking that they be admitted to the order.

Mrs. Murray expressed an opinion that the British flag should not be put to certain uses as it was at present, such as advertising purposes in store windows, and to attract people to auction sales which she considered an abuse of the emblem.

She also drew attention to the fact that forty different languages were spoken by the various immigrants, and suggested that an effort should be made to teach these people the English language. She also called attention to the fact that in Canadian picture shows and theatres it was often the custom to exhibit the Stars and Stripes at the commencement of certain portions of a show, and this, she said, should be changed and the Union Jack given a foremost place.

At the opening of the convention, and while delivering the address of welcome, Mrs. W. C. Hodgson said: "There are to-day over 45,000 members of the Imperial Order, Daughters of the Empire, which organization extends from ocean to ocean."

Notes of loyalty were passed by a standing vote to be sent to their majesties King George and Queen Mary.

Provincial Reports. The Provincial Chapter of Saskatchewan reported the sum of $151,000 raised during the year by its sixty chapters, and $46,000 worth of socks and shirts sent to Canadian soldiers. The total contribution of this Provincial Chapter during the year being $409,000 in cash and $100,000 worth of knitting and sewing. In New Brunswick $40,000 was raised by twenty-five chapters.

Mrs. Hassel, of B.C., told of $220,169 raised by 4,710 members in 1918 and $381,639 since August, 1914. The secretary of the National Chapter of the Bahamas, reported 31,000 articles sent overseas since 1915, and $235. The present membership is 223. The eighth annual report of Bermuda showed the energies of the order have been spent chiefly in Red-Cross work.

The municipal report for the past eight years of the Sherbrooke Chapter told of over $15,000 raised in the past year by six chapters representing 500 members.

The secretary of the Municipal Chapter, Toronto, in submitting the sixth annual report, said from March, 1918, to 1919, the amount raised in Toronto was $93,128.48. During the war—the total amount was $412,171.27.

With all this work, thousands of articles have been made for the Red Cross and hundreds of pairs of socks knitted, one chapter sending overseas 2,540 pairs during the last year.

Tribute to the Queen. Several interesting speakers took part in the big convention, the service of Thanksgiving being read by Rev. Geo. Adam, of Montreal, who said in part:

"The I.O.D.E. and all women of the British Empire have a great deal to give thanks for in the part they were able to play in helping win the war. In no war in the history of the world have women played such a vital part."

Tribute was also paid the noble part played by Queen Mary. In every avenue of service she was first and foremost. A copy of her diary of 1917, which was presented, showed a wonderful record of her activities.

"You have all been well led by your Queen, said the speaker. When the morale of the women of the great French republic was falling, the Queen, through her very presence in the streets of France renewed their courage."

"If we will only prosecute righteousness in the days of peace, as we did in the days of war, we are bound to enjoy a happy and glorious future."

Souvenir Programme. A unique souvenir of the annual convention of the I.O.D.E. is a handsome programme being presented by the Municipal Montreal Chapter to delegates. The booklet contains a brief history of the war work of the Montreal branches and is bound in blue with crest embossed in gold and colors. One of the most interesting features of the souvenir are the photographs of President Mrs. A. E. Gooderham, Mrs. Clark Murray, founderess of the order, and Montreal women who have taken active part in war work the past five years.

"Pa," asked little Willie, "what's the meaning of the prophes of evil?" "I suppose, my son," replied Mr. Kidder, "that that's another name for the wages of sin."

THE PACIFIC ISLANDS.

Lecturing in Sydney, N. S. W., recently Thomas McMahon, F.R.G.S., said:—"Let me tell you what are the feelings and opinions in the Pacific Islands regarding the possibility of Australian administration. The return of the Pacific Islands to Germany is simply unthinkable, but I tell you plainly that Australian administration is not wanted. The people of the Pacific Islands say 'Look at the Northern Territory. What a failure in administration you have there. It is that it is more than failure. It is an administrative scandal unparalleled in the history of the British Empire. Look at Papua, perhaps the richest and most wonderful territory in the world. If Papua is
